Dancers Twirl at Squ are Dance Jamboree

Magic Valley square dancers jammed Radio Ronderoo Saturday night for a Square Dance Jamboree. Dancers are shown doing the Farley Vous called by Mac Winters, Twin Falls, on the stage. More than 700 dancers and spectators attended the event sponsored by the Eplacopal Men's club. Callers came from all parts of Magic Valley. (Staff photo-engraving)

Little Wood River Sweeps Over Banks; Damage Held to Minimum

CAREY, April 22—Little Wood river swept out of its banks at 2 a.m. Saturday as it reached a peak flow of 1,200 second feet of water. However, night patrols held property damage to a minimum by catching several near washouts at the airport and dislodging debris which threatened to back up water in the channel.

Water rose to basement windows of two houses in town and 500 acres south of the Carey city limits were inundated.

Two bridges were nearly washed out but reinforcements were built during the day and the bridges were open to traffic Saturday evening.

The peak flow Saturday morning exceeded Friday's peak by more than 200 second feet and came over the banks on the south side one mile west of highway 93. The overflow covered part of the Alfred Altmethen ranch just south of the city limits and was within 150 feet of the house before a bulldozer was able to cut a new channel back to the river.

Debris Blocks Channel

At one time stumps, logs and other debris blocked the channel near the Altmethen ranch and threatened to form a lake there. Flood crews went out in boats, hooking lines on logs to pull them out of the channel. One of the crew was spilled into the stream, but escaped although nearly numb from the icy water.

Patrols cruised up and down the river bank all night Friday. The engine used to deepen the channel was put on a 24-hour shift. Other equipment was worked late Friday night and was out again when the peak came at 2 a.m.

Banks Strengthened

Near the airport the night patrol discovered several places nearly washed through. Trucks and other equipment were brought up immediately to strengthen the banks.

Approximately 500 acres of land outside Carey were under water Saturday. The two houses where water reached basement windows are owned by Dave Baird and Boyd Barton. Extent of the damage had not been determined Saturday evening.

Dust Clouds Sky

Along with the flood, Carey residents experienced a wind storm Saturday which clouded the sky with dust raised by trucks and other equipment. Until late Saturday afternoon a pall of dust hung over the town, but toward evening the sky cleared and the sun shone.

Warmer weather is expected Sunday.

Woman, 50, Held Here on Bigamy

Marie Murray, 50, Twin Falls, asked for statutory time on civil matters when arraigned in justice court Saturday afternoon on a charge of bigamy.

A hearing on the charge has been set for 2:30 p.m. Monday. Mrs. Murray is being held in the county jail under $500 bond.

She was arrested by sheriff's deputies Saturday after a complaint charging her with bigamy was signed by her second husband, Joseph Beaman.

According to Mrs. Murray, her former husband, Lee Murray, Twin Falls, had been gone for several years and she received three letters telling her that he was dead. Murray returned to Twin Falls recently.

Mass Band Spectacle Ends Music Festival

BURLEY, April 22—A spectacular massed band demonstration completed the district music festival here tonight. The climax came after 13 bands had given 10-minute drills at Denman field, the Burley high school athletic grounds.

Stands were filled to capacity with spectators and many more stood, occupied branches of trees and took over other vantage points to witness the festival's last

The festival was sponsored by the South Central Idaho ... association and ... 2,000 students from high schools throughout Magic Valley.

In front of the massed bands playing "The Star Spangled Banner" and "Military Escorts" as the final number were twirlers from all the bands entered at the festival.

Trophies were awarded by Earl Carlson, Burley high school principal, to representatives of winning bands, orchestras, mixed choruses and marching bands. The awards were given by the Burley Chamber of Commerce.

Band Trophies

Band trophies went to Wendell, Filer, Burley and Twin Falls. Orchestra trophies were awarded to Twin Falls and Burley. Mixed choruses from Jerome, Gooding, Kimberly, Twin Falls, Hazelton and Burley won trophies and Oakley, Shoshone, Wendell, Buhl and Burley received honors for marching bands.

Saturday events included group vocal, individual mezzo-soprano, band and orchestra exhibitions and judging.

Appear in Concert

Friday night outstanding soloists appeared in the concert. They were the students judged outstanding in contests held during the day.

Included in the Friday program were a saxophone quartet composed of Joan Springer, Lois Taylor, Beverly Smith and Wayne Lawton, Wendell; violin solo by Phyllis Novosel, Burley; vocal solo by Tess Carter, Jerome; baritone horn solo by Billy Winn, Shoshone; vocal trio composed of Myrna Campbell,

Political ABC Will Be Given

Charles Bullen, Twin Falls county recorder, will be featured speaker at an open forum sponsored by the county Women's Republican club at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the American Legion hall, Mrs. Shurgeon McCoy, club president, reminded local voters Saturday.

He will discuss the mechanics of politics in Idaho and will consider every office from dogcatcher to governor, Mrs. McCoy explained. Salaries, duties and length of terms will be treated.

Also on the program will be Mrs. Douglas Dean who will speak on "Politics is everybody's business."

"Prime Lesson"

"This meeting is the primer lesson in the ABC's of politics," Mrs. McCoy said. "At the meeting local people will discuss the things we all need to know about Idaho politics. We want everyone, Republicans, Democrats, independents or anyone else, men and women, to attend these discussions."

She said the open invitation also applies to a potluck luncheon at 1 p.m. and the business meeting at 2:30 p.m. Those who attend the luncheon are requested to bring food.

Expect Good Turnout

"We expect a good turnout as we have had for speakers from either parts of the state or nation," Mrs. McCoy added.

"After all, a working knowledge of politics is vital to every voter. The so-called political machines are able to put candidates on the ballot for whom the electorate refuses to accept its responsibilities in selecting the right candidates."

She said enlightened voters are

Patrons Approve Merger Proposal

RICHFIELD, April 22—A proposal to reorganize three local school districts into a class A district carried here Friday night by a vote of 70 to 8.

The proposal provides for combining the Burmah and North end common districts and Richfield independent district 10.

In the independent district 37 persons voted for the reorganization and three against. North end residents voted 23 to 1 for the proposal and Burmah 19 to 4 in favor of one class A district.

Rise in Cost of Living Is Noted

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—A slight rise in living costs, mainly due to higher food prices, was reported today by the government.

The bureau of labor statistics said its living cost index increased three-tenths of one per cent from February to March. Foods, after declining for three straight months, rose six-tenths of one per cent.

Local Jury Fails to Agree on Penalty For Teacher in Student-Beating Case

A six-man justice court jury failed to reach a decision Saturday in the case of Leo Parkinson, 31, Hollister grade school principal charged with battery in the beating of a third grade pupil.

The jury deliberated more than an hour but the final vote was four in favor of acquittal and two favoring a guilty verdict. If five members of a justice court jury agree, a decision can be rendered.

Another trial has been set for 10 a.m. next Saturday, Parkinson is free on his own recognizance.

During testimony Saturday Parkinson admitted whipping Michael Itterahagen, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Itterahagen, Hollister. He said he used a board about two feet long, six inches wide and one-fourth inch thick. He maintained he had the right to discipline pupils in this manner. He said he beat the boy because he was running in the school halls.

Mrs. Itterahagen was called to the stand and testified she found the bruises on her son's buttocks when she was bathing him the night of April 14. He then told her about the beating.

Roy Hayes, Kimberly, said he came to the Itterahagen home April 15 and Itterahagen asked him to look at the bruises.

Deputy Sheriff John Wilkerson said he examined the boy April 15 and described the bruises.

Gary Guy, Hollister pupil, was called for the defense and said the Itterahagen boy had been whipped by school bus captain for misconduct on the buses. Tom Skinner, Amsterdam, corroborated this statement.

It was brought out in court there is no provision in Idaho code for beating as a form of discipline.

J. H. Barnes is attorney for Parkinson. Leonard Jacob, deputy prosecuting attorney, represented the state.

Members of the jury were W. G. Seal, D. S. Wallis, A. E. Sitter, F. A. Gilmerich, D. E. Schimke and Wilbur Hill.

State Agrees To Survey of Road's Route

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—The state highway department will make surveys to determine the possibility of rerouting U. S. highway 30 between Buhl and Filer.

Commissioner of Highways J. R. McKinney told a Twin Falls county delegation recommended the rerouting to eliminate two railroad crossings and several sharp curves on the heavily traveled road.

Need More Rights

He said additional right-of-way will be needed to complete the rerouting which would go straight west from the southwest corner of Filer for five miles and then go to two miles north to join the present highway.

The railroad crossings have been the scene of fatal train-auto collisions in past years.

The delegation included representatives from Twin Falls, Buhl and Filer, McKinney said.

Ask Denial

Jerome county commissioners conferred with state h... class yesterday, but ... state aid for road b... project. Attorney explained that under new highway administration act passed by the 1950 special legislative session, no state funds could be expended on roads other than those in the state highway system.

The Jerome commissioners were seeking help to get the road from the Hunt project, a newly opened homestead area, to a junction with state route 25. McKinney pointed out, however, that the road was not a designated state highway and that it was not eligible for state aid.

Saturday morning, Atty. Gen. Robert E. Smylie ruled that no state funds may be expended on federal aid secondary roads which are not a part of the state highway system.

Two Officers 'Hit Jackpot' On Brief Trip

Sheriff Jesse Carlton and Deputy James Benham reported a fruitful trip to Idaho Falls Saturday.

They started for Blackfoot to return a prisoner sent there for observation. Before they returned they solved a stolen car case dating back to last July and apprehended two men wanted for robbery in Walla Walla, Wash.

Went to Idaho Falls

The two officers went to Idaho Falls to talk to Eugene Gibons, Montanan being held there on a stolen car charge. Idaho Falls police warned the Twin Falls officers they would be wasting their time talking to Gibons, but they were wrong.

Gibons admitted to Carlton and Benham that he stole a 1947 sedan from the Barnard used car lot in Twin Falls last July 29 and gave the officers the name of the used car dealer in Bismarck, N. D., where he sold the car. The sheriff expects to recover the car without further difficulty.

Spot Car

Returning from Idaho Falls, the officers picked up their prisoner in Blackfoot. They were just leaving for Twin Falls when they spotted a car which fit the description of one driven by two men wanted in Walla Walla, Wash., for robbery.

They stopped the car without any trouble and turned the two men over to the Bingham county sheriff. Carlton said the two men readily admitted they were the pair wanted in Walla Walla.

Jerome Meet Set By Hardware Men

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—A series of seven district meetings of the intermountain Hardware and Implement Dealers association has been scheduled next month.

Leon Weeks, secretary, said the dealers will discuss merchandising, profit control, taxes and accounting problems.

Meetings will be held at Cedar City, Utah, May 8; Nephi, Utah, May 9; Salt Lake City, May 10; Logan, May 11; Idaho Falls, May 12; Jerome, May 15, and Boise, May 16.

Strikes Threaten to Tie Four Railways, U.S. Phone System

By the Associated Press

The threat of early crucial tieups in telephone and rail service and a deadlock in the Chrysler strike negotiations darkened the labor picture Saturday.

These were the developments:

1. A key unit in the telephone strike negotiations—the installation workers—threatened to quit work Monday, two days in advance of the scheduled walkout of 200,000 telephone workers.

2. The Southern Railway System said it would close down its entire 8,000 mile system by Wednesday because of a strike threat of locomotive firemen. The firemen say they will walk out Wednesday on four major railroad systems.

3. Federal mediators made one more effort to bring early settlement in the hopelessly deadlocked, 58-day old Chrysler strike. If unsuccessful, the mediators said, they will drop their efforts during an indefinite cooling off period.

Ernest Weaver, president of division 6, CIO Communication Workers of America, said 10,000 installation workers in 43 states and the district of Columbia will go out Monday unless an isolated dispute in Indiana is settled.

Some 104 installation workers in South Bend, Ind., march 27. They charged that a crew was denied pay after it refused to walk more than a half mile through a muddy field to work on a telephone lower. Sympathy walkouts began at scattered points in the country Friday.

What development has raised a new crisis demanding immediate attention. Negotiators had expected to have until Wednesday to thresh out the issues in the overall telephone dispute.

The overall telephone strike is scheduled for Wednesday. It was called by various CWA divisions against the American Telephone and Telegraph company to back up demands for a 15 cents hourly pay increase, pension improvements and other benefits.

The union, at the request of President Truman, agreed to a 60-day

Court Ruling Sought On School Site Law

A district court civil suit filed Friday seeks a judgment clarifying Idaho law regarding the need for a special election in the Twin Falls school district before a new high school site can be acquired.

Thomas R. Hovenden, Twin Falls, filed the suit. It names the school district and its board of trustees as defendants.

It asks that the court determine what elections are required and the nature of the question on questions which should be submitted to voters.

Hovenden, a district resident and taxpayer and a parent of school-age children, sought the action on his own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated in the district.

Answer Filed

An answer filed by the defendants Friday contends the school board has the power to acquire a site for the new high school without holding any elections.

The following statement was issued by Hovenden:

"I have been advised that the statutes which control the acquisition by the Twin Falls school district of a site for the new high school are inconsistent and ambiguous, and unless the uncertainties in the statutes can be settled by judicial interpretation, the board of trustees will be unable to determine the proper course of action and further delays in the acquiring of a site for a new high school will

PTA Officers Are Installed At State Meet

POCATELLO, April 22 (AP)—The Idaho Congress of Parents and Teachers wound up its 43rd convention in Pocatello Saturday with the installation of officers and the adoption of three resolutions.

Mrs. Paul Echout of Boise, state president, said the two-day meeting drew the largest attendance on record. A total of 341 delegates, representing 19,741 PTA members, attended the convention, compared with 339 last year.

Officers Installed

Three state vice presidents were installed at the concluding session. They are Mrs. E. J. Soelberg of Idaho Falls, second vice president; Mrs. Sam Danner of Shoshone, fourth vice president; and Mrs. W. T. Williamson of Lewiston, sixth vice president. Terms of other state officers will not expire until next year.

New Evidence Is Hinted for Probe of Reds

WASHINGTON, April 22— (AP)—Hinting at new evidence, Senator Hickenlooper, R., Ia., today demanded a thorough investigation of what he called the "very mysterious" 1945 Amerasia case involving secret government papers.

He made the statement after being told by reporters that Senator McCarthy, R., Wis., had predicted that the Amerasia case is about to break wide open and would disclose an important Soviet espionage ring.

Old Case Revealed

The case first came to light five years ago with the arrest by the FBI of Philip Jaffe, Frederick ... John S. Service and five other persons. They were charged with illegal removal of government documents case in the Amerasia Journals, a publication devoted to news of far eastern affairs.

Service later was exonerated and returned to duty in the state department. A grand jury also refused to indict two others. Two of those arrested were dropped and there was no action against the sixth defendant.

Declines Comment

Hickenlooper declined to discuss just what he has in mind in the way of possible new evidence. He is a member of the senate's foreign relations subcommittee which is looking into McCarthy's charges of communism in the state department.

McCarthy has said his charges will stand or fall on the outcome of his accusations against far eastern experts. The Iowa Republican and Wisconsin Republican has called Latimore Russia's top espionage agent in this country—a charge Latimore has called a "contemptible lie."

Nielson to Seek GOP Nomination

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—Announcement of his intention to run for re-election as state auditor was made today by N. P. Nielson. He will seek the Republican nomination in the August primary.

After serving two years as chief accountant for the state highway department, Nielson was elected state auditor in 1946.

He said he would make a further announcement when he files his declaration of candidacy.

Nielson's home is in Pocatello.

REDS GET PLANES

HONG KONG, April 22 (AP)—The pro-nationalist newspaper Ta Wen Tien-Ti said today Chinese Communist Leader Mao Tse-Tung obtained 300 planes from Russia during his recent visit to Moscow.

Raft Supports Attack Theory In Plane Loss

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, April 22 (AP)—The Stockholm newspaper Dagens Nyheter today quoted a Swedish navy police officer at Visby, on Gotland island, as having said a second rubber life raft picked up in the Baltic sea last Thursday appeared to have been hit by bullets.

American naval officials are examining both this raft and another one picked up in the Baltic last Sunday to see if they belonged to a U. S. navy Privateer patrol bomber plane missing over the Baltic since April 8.

The U. S. government has accused Russian fighter planes of shooting down the unarmed privateer, with a crew of 10, and has demanded damages from the USSR. The Soviet government rejected the American note, claiming Russian craft had fired on a U. S. B-29 Superfortress which had flown across the Russian border in Latvia.

Dagens Nyheter carried a brief interview with State Police Officer Karl Edstrom.

In addition to a large hole in the middle of the raft, apparently caused by fire, the policeman said "it had several round holes" and also a type which caused him to remark the "raft appeared to have been hit by bullets."

State, Park Service Leaders Speak at Road Group's Meet

FAIRFIELD, April 22—Secretary of State J. D. (Cy) Price, former Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen and Sam Rose, new superintendent of the Craters of the Moon national monument, were principal speakers at the April meeting of the Yellowstone-Sun Valley Highway association meeting here yesterday.

Price said Gov. C. A. Robins sent regrets on being unable to attend. Saying "Idaho is one of the last frontiers," Price cited the need for more highway money and adequate markers to point out special places of interest.

Houston said the park service is planning a direct route from the national monument to the proposed new highway when it is constructed. He said some 10,000 cars stopped at the monument last year, about 50 per cent from out of state. The grand opening will be held this year on May 28 under sponsorship of the Arco Chamber of Commerce, he said.

Bottolfsen explained the need for the new highway route and explained prospects for work on the project.

Dr. A. Dye was toastmaster at the banquet winding up the day's meeting. He said the session would be the last of this season for the association.

Entertainment consisted of songs by the Camas sextet, accompanied by a ukelele. Participating were Mrs. Charles Dickerson, Mrs. Orlo Garrett, Mrs. Don Vaught, Mrs. Milo Baker, Mrs. George Perkins, sr., and Mrs. Marion D. Kerns, with Mrs. Lloyd Carron as accompanist. They were invited to repeat the performance at the opening ceremonies at Craters of the Moon.

Also on the program was a square dance exhibition by eight first grade students with Cleli Ballard calling. Mrs. Bud Hendricks is teacher of the pupils.

Square and round dancing was held after the banquet with Boyd Harrison, Hill City, calling the square dances.

Commissioner to Seek Reelection

County Commissioner George A. Childs announced Friday that he expects to file for reelection. Childs will complete his first two-year term this fall as commissioner from his second district.

Two commissioners are elected at each election with the third man serving a four-year term to provide continuity. Chairman DeWitt Young's term also will expire this year, but he has not announced his plans.

The other commissioner, L. W. Hawkins, first district, is serving a four-year term which expires in 1952.

College Choir Plans Concert Here Monday

The Adelphian concert choir of the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash., will present a program of secular and religious music at 8 p.m. Monday in the Twin Falls Methodist church. The appearance is sponsored by the Methodist church.

The 30-voice mixed group, conducted by Prof. Clyde Kreiter, director of the college music department. The choir was formed from the Adelphian Choral society in 1945 and has toured the west each spring since that time. The present tour is taking the group through six states for 20 concerts between April 15 and May 5.

The choral group, composed of sophomores, juniors and seniors, will present soloists, a girls' trio and a male quartet. In addition, the choir accompanist will present several piano selections.

The choir, noted for its versatility, will present operatic and sacred selections as well as secular and religious music.

Professor Kreiter is a graduate of the University of Chicago and Columbia University where he studied vocal training from Arthur Burton, Chicago, and Madame Schoen-Rene, Juilliard Graduate school, New York City. He made his debut at Town Hall, New York City, in 1937, and sang his first engagement with the Philadelphia Civic Opera company in 1938.

He has done nation-wide concert work and has sung as tenor soloist in leading churches of New York City and Chicago, Ill. Before he became head of music at the College of Puget Sound, he was head of the music department of the University of North Carolina.

Releases Sought For Excess Spud Allotments Here

Potato growers who do not intend to plant their full acreage allotments were urged Saturday by L. A. Winkle, acting chairman of the Twin Falls county production and marketing administration committee, to release their excess allotments for use by other growers.

He said acreage allotments which will not be planted may be released to the county PMA until the office closes June 15. The PMA will then allot the released acreages to other growers who have placed requests for larger allotments.

Winkle also pointed out that that growers' eligibility fees to be collected later, will be the alloted acres times the percentage of interest in the crop times $1.40 per acre.

Bar Commission Endorses Taylor

IDAHO FALLS, April 22 (AP)—The Idaho Bar commission today endorsed [illegible] Taylor, Pocatello, for appointment to the state supreme court by Governor C. A. Robins.

Justice Taylor, appointed to the court by Gov. C. A. Robins, was endorsed by Bar Commissioners Claude V. Marcus, Boise; Ralph Litton, St. Anthony, and Robert Brown, Lewiston.

Justice Taylor has announced he will seek election to the bench on the non-partisan judicial ballot.

Reigns as Queen

IDAHO STATE COLLEGE, Pocatello, April 22—Grace Johnson, Twin Falls, reigned as queen at the ISC "western dance" Saturday.

Day's events included flapjacks for breakfast at the main dining hall and the Graveley tearoom, a barbecue instead of the regular dinner and a dance at the old hall at night.

Assisting with arrangements were Dean Johnson, Rupert, Elaine Bodenstab, Twin Falls, and Phil Johnson, Murtaugh.

Pair Fined

Kendell Atkinson, Buhl, was fined $17 and $6 cost in justice court Friday after pleading guilty to charges of driving a truck loaded in excess of the gross weight and for not having the gross weight stenciled on the side of the truck. He was arrested April 20 by state police.

Hurbert C. Hunter, Twin Falls, was fined $2 and $3 costs on charges of driving his car through private property and entering a through street without stopping.

Air Force Shows New Weapons to U. S. Top Brass

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla., April 22 (AP)—The air force laid down a thundering bombardment with its new type attack weapons today to impress President Truman and top military brass in command.

The chief executive turned time and again to high military leaders grouped around him remarks on Mr. Truman's potentiality of U. S. air power.

This second display of postwar might for the President was carried out against a backdrop of an unarmed American plane.

Before flying back to Washington, where he arrived at 2:44 (MST), Mr. Truman and the nation's top brass went by the giant climatic hanger to have a look in on tests of American bullets and equipment carried out under arctic conditions.

There was little doubt of the seriousness with which the President regarded this war games yesterday at Fort Benning and today at Eglin.

Election Held

J. A. Clawson, J. Clifton Smallwood, Howarth Osler, L. C. Sumner and Gordon Edgar, all Twin Falls, were elected directors of the South Central Idaho Contractors association at a meeting of the association Friday evening in the Park hotel dining room.

A brief discussion was held on the freedom forum meeting held Thursday evening at the high school auditorium.

4-H Club Formed

FILER, April 22—The Stitch and Chatter 4-H club was organized Thursday night by Mrs. Stanley Walters, assisted by F. M. Vandenburg, county club agent, at a meeting held in the Walters home. Eight girls and four parents were present. Dora Ann Walters was elected president; Sally Houser, vice president; Jeanette Brown, secretary, and Patty Boyd, reporter.

EMERSON, April 22—Ed Moldenhauer is home from the veterans hospital in Boise where he spent 85 days receiving treatment and medical attention for injuries received in action in Italy.

Court Ruling Is Asked on School Land

tion of the trustees was issued by Clyde Koontz, chairman of the board.

"This action was brought with the knowledge of the board and the board wants every proper question have a complete judicial interpretation of all of the statutes involved," he said.

The order for the board to proceed, it is necessary several questions be answered by the court, including: (1) Whether or not an election is necessary before a site for the new high school can be obtained; (2) if an election is necessary, what questions should be submitted to the voters, and (3) whether a simple majority or a two-thirds majority is necessary at any such election.

An example of the delay occasioned by the uncertainties in the statutes is the delay in the pending condemnation proceedings. The board is advised that undoubtedly both this declaratory judgment action and the pending condemnation proceeding will be taken to the supreme court in order that all necessary questions can be answered and in order that the board may proceed promptly with a site for the new high school as soon as possible and with as little unnecessary expense to the taxpayers as possible."

Building Advances

CAREY, April 22—Progress is being made on several construction projects in this community.

The Coates hotel is being renovated and enlarged. Two rooms and a bath are being added to a two-room structure built last year on the W. O. Eldredge property. Nearing completion is a four-unit motel being erected by T. B. Paterson.

'Frolic' Planned

CAREY, April 22—Committees of the Chamber of Commerce are making preparations for a spring frolic.

A colorful program is being arranged and dancing will be held at night. Food will be served and prizes awarded.

Advance ticket sales are now being made.

Remodeling

HAGERMAN, April 22—Extensive remodeling and redecorating is taking place at the Cady Auto company. Display shelves are being replaced by new adjustable ones and the stock rearranged. French doors on the right front end of the building have been replaced by a large window.

CALIFORNIANS VISIT

KIMBERLY, April 22—Mr. and Mrs. H. [illegible] and daughter, Ruth, are here from Paso Robles, Calif., to visit their son, Mr. Richardson, and family. Mrs. Richardson is a former Kimberly resident, being a teacher in Paso Robles.

Non-Fisherman Hank Gives in, Almost, to Isaac Walton Talk

BY HENRY McLEMORE

This comes to you from Homosassa Springs. Running from Homosassa Springs to the Gulf of Mexico are nine miles of the best fishing stream in Florida. It would be my luck to be exactly where I am because if you have ever laid your eyes on a man who hates fishing it is Henry McLemore.

I wouldn't know a royal coachman from a hotel doorman. They tell you here, you know the difference between a dorsal fin and a salmon. And what do you think I am surrounded by? People who have dedicated their lives to fishing. I have a room and bath here at the Homosassa Springs hotel, but do you know what I sleep on at night—a creel.

McLemore

As I write this, on my left is an authority on speckled trout. On my right is a man who has spent the last 17 years studying the habits of bass. Directly in front of me is a woman who can tell you the weight of the world's record perch. With her is her husband who can not only tell you the weight of the perch but can give you the first name, the middle name, and the street address of the man who caught the perch.

What I am trying to tell you in this simple column is this one thing: I am surrounded by probably the greatest group of fishermen in the world and I am wearing myself out trying to talk their language.

You can't tell people who love to fish that you think it's undoubtedly the world's worst pastime. If I stood up and announced that to the group that's here at the Homosassa Springs hotel they wouldn't be satisfied with just cutting my throat or wringing my neck or gouging out the simple eyeballs with my fingers.

They would have to figure out a new and completely different way of eliminating me from this world. If you don't think your conversation is dull let me quote about three or four paragraphs of it.

"You mean to say you caught that with a spinner?"

"The best fishing in the world is three miles outside of Chile because that's the only place in the world that I don't know your conversation catch a rainbow. And when I say a rainbow I don't mean a trout; you can actually catch a rainbow."

"I know places you are talking about but what kind of tackle do you use for a rainbow? Will a 13-ounce line hold a rainbow?"

Other features of the meeting include a display of press comments on the recent visit by Guy George Gabrielson, GOP national chairman, and a special music program.

The press clippings, under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth A. Keveren, will have notations and explanations attached. The music program is under the direction of Mrs. Claude Brown.

Wood River Bed Blasted to Ward Off Hailey Flood

HAILEY, April 22—The west side of the Big Wood river near this city was blasted Friday by mountain Climber Lloyd Leichliter and James Cook in an attempt to ward off possible flooding of the Troy addition of the Hailey area.

The two men had to cross the river above Hailey to set the charge.

The major part of the river seemed to be going into the new power canal, Leichliter said. The blasting was done to widen the channel where riprapping above the dam had started to wash.

Woodrow Watts, watermaster, said the water had risen one and one-half feet in the past two days, but that the high water had not started.

The two men were assisted by Hedley Woods and Charles Bretta.

VISIT AT HAZELTON

HAZELTON, April 22—Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Pontius, Gooding, are visiting at the home of Mrs. John Morehead for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Pontius are parents-in-law of the Morehead's daughter, Laura Ann.

Minnie McClain, 82, Passes Here

Minnie Armenia McClain, 82, died about 8 a.m. Saturday at her Twin Falls home.

She was born Oct. 10, 1857, in Fulton county, Pa., and moved to Kimberly in 1916. She had made her home in Twin Falls for the past 10 years. She was preceded in death by one sister and one brother.

Miss McClain is survived by two brothers, Walter McClain, Twin Falls, and Robert McClain, Hazelton; two sisters, Mrs. Lelia Robb, Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Grace Conkling, Council Bluffs, Ia., and several nieces and nephews in the Twin Falls area.

Graveside services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Sunset Memorial park with the Rev. Albert B. Parrett officiating. The body rests at the White mortuary.

Conversation Jaded? Spark It up With 'Saucer' Tales, Even if They Are Old

By ROBERT E. GEIGER

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—So you'd like to start an argument? Try throwing out a conversational flying saucer.

If you do, you're rather likely to find what some air force officers say they have discovered: Many people hope those flying disks they are manned by little men from Mars.

Today's world sometimes seems to be made up mostly of people who flying saucers are crazy and those who believe there aren't. The argument apparently has been going on a long time. The air force says people have been reporting unidentified—flying—objects—since around 1700—and probably a long time before that.

Charles Boh, president, Truman's secretary said the White House knows of no flying saucer secret weapon this or any other country has developed. But this didn't put an end to all the recent talk.

Why does the flying saucer story stay alive?

Air force officers say it is because some people are convinced this country has developed a flying saucer type of aircraft and believe officials can't admit it publicly because it's in the secret weapon class.

Other people are convinced there couldn't be so many reports flying around if there weren't real flying saucers.

Kenneth Arnold, Boise, Ida., businessman, on Tuesday, June 24, 1947, made one of the first eye-witness reports on flying saucers. The ones he said he saw were over Mt. Rainier, Wash.

Arnold told the Associated Press at that time he is convinced the flying saucers are of "extra terrestrial origin." But he said this doesn't necessarily mean they came from another planet.

"It is obvious to me that there must be some connection between the saucers and the mysterious submarines which are reported at times when the saucer reports are prevalent," he said.

Arnold says he has seen flying saucers three times since he noticed the first ones and says he has motion pictures. He has concluded that what sometimes appears to be sun reflections actually may be power plants which pulsate every 20 miles in flight.

Try tossing out that theory to brighten the dinner table conversation.

Astronomers say objects seen at great distances frequently resemble balls of fire.

Charles Port, author of books which air force officers have studied, made it a point to gather information on remarkable hanncliffe reports of the heavens for centuries.

He cites an incident reported to the British science magazine "Nature" by Adm. Erasmus Ommanney.

The admiral said he was standing outside a hotel in Llanberis, N. Wales, and say a light which "immediately resolved itself into a clearly-defined disk about three times the size of Jupiter as it appeared, discharging brilliant orange clouds.

He reported this happened Aug. 26, 1804. His description isn't dissimilar to descriptions made this year of flying saucers.

Fort cites dozens of aerial incidents dating as far back as 1704. In that year people connected mysterious heavenly lights in England and Switzerland with earthquakes.

Fort quotes New York newspaper stories on the great airship cause of 1897.

The New York Sun reported a mysterious light, traveling about 60 miles an hour and directed toward Albany, appeared over Lake City. A week later dozens of people near Chicago thought they saw lights, red and green, swaying overhead. A third light had the shape of a giant cigar, with a bright searchlight, later was reported over Texas. Similar reports came from many points. Back in 1880 Illinois it was reported the giant airship returned, landed in a farm field and took off again.

The air force argues that if men from Mars—or another planet—have been flying around here all these years, sooner or later they would land and make contact with Earthlans.

Astronomers have told the air force they don't believe Martian civilization would be over a half century of earth's development. And we haven't started using space ships yet.

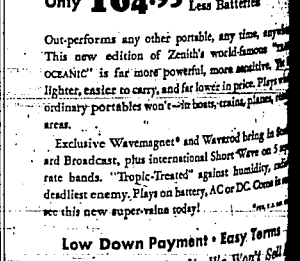

"It appears that space travel from another point within the solar system is possible but very unlikely," the air force sums up.

The possibility that space ships are coming from another solar system also was considered by astronomers. They said there are around 22 known systems besides ours.

But they said the nearest is so far away it would take a flying saucer pilot 80 years to reach earth even if he traveled 18,000 miles a second.

A GENERAL SPEAKS OUT

The announcement by Brig.-Gen. James P. S. Devereux, U. S. marine corps (retired), that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for representative from the second congressional district of Maryland, ordinarily would have little significance to the people out in this western country.

But with the strained relations between United States and Russia, the growing threat of communism in this country, and the socialistic influences which are becoming more apparent on the home front every day, Devereux's announcement takes on added meaning.

First let it be recalled that Devereux spent 25 years in the marine corps. He enlisted as a private in 1923, was commissioned a second lieutenant in 1925, and served thereafter in Nicaragua, Cuba, China, Hawaii and at sea.

In October 1941, Devereux, then a major, was transferred from Honolulu to command the small marine garrison at Wake island. The garrison defended Wake island for 16 days before failing to the Japanese. Major Devereux and the other marines were taken to a Japanese prison camp at Shanghai. He was promoted to lieutenant colonel while in prison. Following the war he was promoted to a full colonel. Upon retirement in 1946 he was made a brigadier general having been awarded the navy cross for action in combat against the enemy.

It also should be added that this is General Devereux's first venture into political activity.

• • •

With that background, it is interesting to know why he has decided to run for the office he seeks, and his reasons, we believe, should set us to thinking. Here is what he had to say in making his announcement:

"It is the duty of every man to try to make this world a better place. All of us owe it to each other and to our children and our children's children to strive for a richer and fuller existence for everyone.

"In our time we have fought two World wars to protect the ideals of freedom and democracy. Our sacrifices were made without stint because we cherished our way of life with its great spiritual values and its material blessings.

"During World war II, some of us had long periods of imprisonment when there was little to do but think of our homeland and dream of the future. We thought that when the war ended we would have an era of quiet contentment of working and having a home and rearing our families. That was our dream.

"I have been home five years. In those five years my mind has not been at peace nor my conscience at rest. Throughout the world, spiritual values, human ideals, and even religious concepts are being compromised or set aside for materialistic ends.

"It has become clear to me that we in America are trapped in a giant pincer movement which threatens not only our existence and our way of life but forecasts an appalling future for our children.

"From without, communism has engulfed half the world and endangers the remaining half.

"From within, socialism is destroying our institutions and our moral fibre much as it has already done in Britain.

"Thus, the tragedy is that while we are threatened externally, we are being weakened internally. Our national security is being undermined by policies inspired by sympathizers and agents of other powers. Simultaneously our economy is being bled white by irresponsible federal spending, borrowing, and taxation.

"I have come to the conclusion that only a change in federal administration can save America.

"The hour is already late. Half-way measures will not do the job. The American people must elect a Republican house and a Republican senate next November, and they must complete the job by electing a Republican President in 1952.

"Because I feel I must do more than vote and speak out in this crisis, I have decided to take a more positive course. I will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for representative from the second congressional district of Maryland.

"I believe that those who feel as deeply as I do should be given a chance to make a clear-cut decision at the polls. I am convinced that the overwhelming majority of the American people want to preserve America and help the world to secure a true and lasting peace. By united effort we will triumph."

There, Mr. and Mrs. America, is food for serious thought!

It should help to arouse all of us into the realization that we should be taking "a more positive course." It's going to require action by the people themselves if they want to preserve their democracy. Criticism alone will not get the job done. Street corner philosophizing isn't enough.

Those of us who believe that America is the greatest country in all the world are the only ones who can keep it that way. We must take "positive action" to offset all the foreign propaganda, subversive influences, and the socialistic thinking of an ever-increasing number of representatives right in our own government. To neglect our personal responsibilities as American citizens is to invite disaster.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

Every Sunday this veteran Washington correspondent answers mail, column to answering readers' questions of general interest on national and international politics and personalities. Questions may be addressed to Ray Tucker at 4308 Hillcrest Place, Chevy Chase, Md.

Ray Tucker

WASHINGTON—"In your opinion," asks J.E.T. of St. Louis, Mo., "is the sharp income tax drop in March 15 returns directly attributable to the large number of strikes by the CIO, resulting in loss of workers' pay, loss of profit for employers, which in turn means a loss of sales and profits for the manufacturer, merchant and all others connected with the production of saleable goods?"

Answer: Treasury statisticians have not yet completed their study of the reasons for the falloff in the first quarter payments, but their sampling of returns convinces them that the numerous national strikes and local stoppages of work were largely responsible, although there were other factors.

• • •

REACTION — Protracted strikes involving thousands of men and their families, as in the coal fields, naturally reduced purchases, setting up a chain reaction that affected every one from the local grocery store to the last big or little manufacturer, the shippers, the distributors etc. Treasury investigation shows clearly the areas where the decline occurred in several cases.

Even the mere threat of strikes tends to curtail purchases and, therefore, profits. When a man fears that he may be called off the job, he defers buying a car, refrigerator, radio or television set. His wife selects cheaper cuts of meat, and mends the youngsters' clothes instead of getting a new outfit for them.

The remarkable increase in retail sales, the information believe, has cut spending in certain lines. The night clubs, the movies, sporting events, the legitimate theater and all away-from-home enterprises have suffered. A slight but persistent drop has been noted in liquor sales.

• • •

SPREE—It seems that the American people went on a spending spree in the year immediately after the war, a natural reaction, and that they are now settling down and taking things more easily, more quietly. Savings of all kinds are up, and rising steadily.

Recognizing the current "boom" cannot last, that the last six months of this year or 1951 at the latest will see a general decline in business and industrial activity, have led many to try to lay some aside during the years 1946 to 1948 inclusive, 1925-1930, and they realize that only the production of ammunitions for foreign countries and ourselves brought us out of that dark decade.

• • •

LEVIES—Another important factor behind reduced income volume is admittedly the indiscreet manner in which President Truman proposed a cut in the so-called "remittance taxes." Even his closest advisers concede privately that his method was a mistake.

Even before he sent tax proposals to congress, the expectation of the elimination or reduction of the luxury levies (many of them are taxes on necessities, as a matter of fact) had curtailed purchases. The January statement by the White House resulted in a deferment that amounted to a boycott.

Eighty per cent of the people in the fur business, from top executives down to piece workers, are out of work because women just are not buying. The same applies to jewelry and every field affected.

• • •

ACTION—Mr. Truman, unfortunately, included this proposal in a general tax message that had numerous controversial items. As a result, the ways and means committee has already dragged through four months of preliminary study. Naturally, people are putting off purchases, even including vacations that require railroad travel, until the duties have been wiped out altogether or shorn.

A better way to have handled this problem would have been to suggest immediate action on the excise burdens, leaving the other controversial questions for a separate message and measure. This is particularly true because congress is almost unanimously in favor of doing away with these wartime penalties.

• • •

ALASKA—"We have heard a lot of late," writes E.H.P. of Northampton, Mass., "about our present inability to defend Alaska from possible Russian attack, due to our lack of troops and equipment in that territory. What would be the position of the Canadian government in the event of an invasion there? Would they come to our assistance? Would the combination of American and Canadian forces be sufficient to halt an attack?"

Answer: There is no doubt that Canada would join with us, for an attack on Alaska would be an imminent threat of our northern neighbor. Canadian air, ground and naval forces have participated with our units in all preparations for war in Arctic regions. A program for integration of weapons has been under way for some time.

• • •

COUNTERATTACK—As to our ability to "defend" against a Russian onslaught, I don't know. Many military experts insist that the reds could take Alaska with a single division. Whether they could hold it against our counterattack is another matter. Naturally, we would throw everything we had against them, for air bases in Alaska might make our great munitions centers—Detroit, for instance—vulnerable to bombing.

The Russians are said to have mobilized large forces just across the Bering sea, almost within eyesight of our observers. They are said to have strong air concentrations in that area. As of today, according to Gov. Ernest Gruening, we have nothing there in the way of defense.

• • •

BET—To H. W., Lansing, Mich: "B" wins the bet. The Brannan plan is not a law. It is simply an administration proposal generally opposed by the Republicans, and also by many prominent Democrats on Capitol Hill.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

FUTILE AND BRUTAL

Viscount Jowitt, lord chancellor and head of England's judicial system, is to be acclaimed, and England itself congratulated for his forthright rejection of flogging as a remedy for the recent "crime wave."

The very brutality of some crimes and the apparent hulloosiness of the perpetrators easily provoke otherwise kindly people to feel that commensurate brutality in punishment is the remedy. Long experience teaches that it is not.

It does not even deter the criminal, let alone get at the roots of crime. What does stay the wrongdoer's hand, as the lord chancellor pointed out, is speed and certainty of arrest, probability of conviction, and severity (not brutality) of punishment. When society moves inexorably upon its enemies it moves effectively, but not when it is driven by vindictiveness.

Cruel punishment regrettably invests the society which inflicts them and serves only to raise up a more ruthless criminal class. The cat-o'-nine-tails, along with the rope, the stocks, and the mutilating knife, belongs to an age we trust has passed forever. It made an instrument of civilization.—Christian Science Monitor.

GAMBLING IS "BAD PUBLICITY"

Miami Beach's Mayor Harold Turk continues to "run for editor" that is, to lambast the newspapers. He argues that we should suppress news of gangster infiltration and organized lawlessness, holding that his city is torn by such "bad publicity."

Colliers, which discussed Miami Beach's crime threat in two articles, "played fast and loose with an investment on the beach of half a billion dollars," Mayor Turk told the president's council.

Professional hoodlumism, especially when it can reach out because it is shielded or overlooked, if not actually encouraged, plays much faster and more loosely with the investment of Miami Beach, or any other city in which it becomes entrenched, than a plain statement of the facts ever can. And also with the community's morals, its social structure, its spiritual life, its enterprise and its economic future.

As a matter of fact this season is a convincing illustration. Miami Beach, reasonably freed by public demand of the racket influences for the first time in years, has had one of the biggest and the longest seasons on record. It has been free, also of "bad publicity" because it ended the cause.—Miami Herald.

BEHIND TIMES (-NEWS)

Dear Pot Shots:

I am a dirty-rotten-trick-player, naturally, the Times-News reaches us a little late.

In regards to Mugwumps and the different versions sent in, you say a certain Mugwump is a Mugwump, which is a little ambiguous. I am sure a number of Y-N readers are still a little vague on the subject. So why not say in plain words a Mugwump is an independent member of the Republican party.

The answers to everyday Insurance problems

By PEAVEY-TABER CO.

QUESTION: I am a salesman and I use my car in business. How do I obtain insurance, which would enable me to pay for renting another car if mine was stolen? I'm referring to the period from loss of the car till it was either recovered or the company settled for the loss.

ANSWER: The standard auto theft policy provides for reimbursement not to exceed five dollars per day for rental of a substitute car. Total payment for this purpose not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars or the cash value of the stolen car.

★ If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

Mr. Dean Acheson:
Secretary of State,
Department of State,
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. Acheson:

I have been thinking over the recent news of the state department and some ideas have occurred to me which I shall pass along to you in the belief they will merit appropriate action in accordance with the distinctive spirit and character of so many of the persons in the state department.

Westbrook Pegler

For one thing, I think it a great shame that we cannot move the state department to Q street because it would be so much more at home there, but I realize that probably is out of the question because so many new deal Q's established squatters' rights on Q street back in the 30s.

However, what would you think of asking congress or the district commission for permission to change the name of Seventeenth street, south of Pennsylvania avenue, to Grimm street in honor of the author of the Fairy tales? Don't you think that would be sweet?

• • •

Then, I would like to suggest that instead of the usual handshake, which, after all, is a bourgeois custom, as Mussolini said, and outmoded, too, especially in the state department, we adopt the curtsey, which is such a pretty gesture and so delicate and graceful.

Or how about blowing a kiss off the ends of one's fingers, or fluttering a handkerchief? Oh, I must tell you about the hankies that I saw in Bergdorf's the other day but then, I mustn't wander off the subject.

It has been on my mind, also, Mr. Acheson, that instead of the stuffy honorific of "excellency" or "honorable," in view of the discovery of 91 peculiars in the state department, leaving goodness knows how many undiscovered, and still employed there, the office of secretary of state ought to carry with it a special title.

Don't you agree? If you tell me one already has been thought of and adopted informally, I will be so vexed that I will flounce myself straight home, wrench the frame down from the wall of my boudoir and tear my Harvard diploma to bits and tatters.

• • •

Do you mind another suggestion from me? If not, I would bet a pretty that it would do wonders for the morale if you were to issue an order changing the name of the room where the employees go to smoke in.

Smoking-room seems so workaday and unimaginative, so prosaic and unpoetical. I see where George Sokolsky, with the earthy humor of one who has lived long in Russia and the orient, has proposed calling it the powder-room.

I think that is vulgar of him. We are not amused. But what about fag-room. What could be more appropriate?

Do you agree with my suspicion that our diplomacy would be improved by a few changes in nomenclature of the buildings with the dignitaries of foreign nationality?

"Esteemed sir" seems as austere as excellency," whereas if you salute Comrade Stalin as "precious" or "baby" or "paloma," what do you stand to lose?

To be sure, he might turn on us and treat us mean, but he does that now, anyway. On the other hand, you can't tell. The Russians aren't bigoted that way.

• • •

By the way, have you checked with Harvard lately on the courses which are offered for young men of distinction who have heard the call of the Wilds and are thinking of taking up careers in the department of state?

Is there a course in military usher? What about interior decorating? What about flower arrangements? Pair Harvard must keep in step.

I think I will write to the proper official and to check me. What is the title? Duchess? Or perhaps you wouldn't know.

I will bet you didn't even know there are 91 Q's in the state department, did you? Anyway, I will bet you've had to stand for a lot of teasing lately, haven't you?

• • •

Do you know what I have been thinking? I have been thinking what a humorous situation there would have been if Jay Gatsby, there in our beautiful, wonderful late President, whose name I am unfit to say, had somehow persuaded old John Garner to take on the job of secretary of state and they had discovered that his middle name was Nance!

He didn't have any striped pants in his layette. I guess it is just as well that didn't happen, though. We never had a vice president who was executed for murder, did we?

Well, that is all for now. I hope some of these random thoughts will contribute to the effective administration of your onerous task. Keep your powder dry.

Westbrook Pegler.

Magnolia Blooms

A 3-year-old magnolia tree burst into bloom last week at the residence of Dee Pace, 121 Tenth avenue east. Shown above is young Jay Pace examining the blooms. The small tree had 22 blooms at its height, but their attractiveness for children had reduced the number to 16 when the picture was taken. Mrs. Pace says she knows of no other magnolia tree in the city. (Staff photo-engraving)

Space Conserved In Jackson Lake To Reduce Flood

Natural flow water amounting to 575 second-feet is being released from Jackson lake to conserve space for anticipated flood waters later this spring, Lynn Crandall, upper Snake river watermaster, announced Saturday.

He said the snow supply above the lake is 19 per cent above normal for the present time of year and there has been little melting of snow since April 1, especially at lower elevations.

Snow depths on the Jackson lake watershed, as reported by J. L. Braman, Jackson lake reservoir superintendent, vary from 99 per cent of normal at the Moran canyon snow station to 146 per cent at the Aster creek station.

Fairfield Guests, Travel Reported

FAIRFIELD, April 22—Mickey Armitage has returned from Pocatello where he spent two weeks and underwent surgery twice.

Spending this week at the Frank Croner home is his son, Lieut. Waldo Croner, San Diego, naval officer.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles R. Croner and two sons are visiting at the home of his father, Frank Croner. Captain Croner, a jet airplane pilot, is being transferred from Rantoul, Ill., to an overseas assignment. His family will live at Tujunga, Calif.

Final Honors Are Given to Idaho Native

OAKLEY, April 22—Final honors were paid in Boise this week to one of the first men born in Idaho, Edward Lee Abbott, 84, former resident of Magic Valley. In his colorful career he was a miner, rancher and son of a captain in the Rouge river Indian war.

He was born in Boise basin, then known as Florida City, on Nov. 17, 1865, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Asael Abbott, who were immigrants to Oregon from Missouri. Later they settled in Garden Valley, here Edward Lee was born, on his father's 1,000-acre homestead, the first to be filed on in the valley.

He came of a line of army men, his grandfather having been Gen. Isaac Shelby of revolutionary war days, in addition to the Indian war record of his father.

Schooled at Bellevue

He received some of his schooling at Bellevue and he and his brother built some of the earliest log cabin homes there and in Ketchum, several of which stand today.

In his earlier days he followed a mining career, was in charge of the Shults mine, 50 miles from Tucson, Ariz., in 1901, the Big Horn gold mine in California and several leading mines in the Thunder mountain area.

Ranch on Fish Creek

In later years he turned to farming, owning a large ranch on upper Fish creek, which was sold later, before he moved to Boise valley to farm. He retired about five years ago.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Margaret Abbott; two sons, Norman Abbott, Seattle, and Edward Lee Abbott, jr., Boise; three daughters, Mrs. Leona Conter, Carey; Mrs. Hazel Johns, Boise, and Mrs. Naomi Lynn in Texas, nine grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Sam Blair, Centralia, Wash.

Engineer Exams In Civil Service Are Announced

Civil service examinations for engineers were announced Saturday by H. F. Rexroat, civil service secretary for Twin Falls.

The positions pay $4,600 to $6,400 a year and are located in various federal agencies in and near Washington, D. C. A few positions in other parts of the nation may be filled. The positions covered in the examinations are for all branches of engineering.

To qualify, applicants must have completed four years of college and have a bachelor's degree in engineering, or four years of progressive experience in technical engineering or a combination. In addition, they must have had from two to four years of professional experience in engineering, the amount depending upon the salary level for which they wish to be considered.

Age limits are 18 to 62 years and these are waived for applicants with veteran's preference.

Applications must be received by the civil service commission, Washington 25, D. C., before May 9. Complete information may be obtained from Rexroat in the Twin Falls postoffice.

KING HILL, April 22—Two local students at the University of Idaho will participate in the Little International livestock show sponsored by the university Ag club. They are Kenneth Hoagland, son of Mrs. Martin Woodward, and Robert Greer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Greer.

Hoagland will fit and show Duroc and Polands, and compete in poultry judging. Greer will fit and show an Angus heifer, and compete in grain grading, entomology, plant pathology, and vegetable and seed identification.

Donors of Blood Are Needed for Shoshone Project

SHOSHONE, April 22 — W. H. Murphy, Lincoln county Red Cross chairman, calls attention to the Red Cross mobile blood bank which will be here Tuesday. More blood donors are needed and those wishing to sign up or secure more information may contact him or Mrs. P. H. Dinsmore who is chairman of the project.

The unit will be set up in the Lincoln school cafeteria and refreshments will be served to the donors by the Rebekah lodge. Five nurses and a doctor come with the unit and blood will be taken at the rate of six or seven donors every 15 minutes.

All donors will be given a preliminary examination and are asked to abstain from eating fatty foods four hours before donating blood. The blood taken will be sent to the laboratory in Boise to be typed and stored to be used as needed. Each person will be told what type of blood he has.

County Clubs Will Sponsor Houses Tour

Ideas of the new and practical in housing will be shown on a planned tour of five Buhl area homes during national home demonstration week, April 30 to May 6, according to Mrs. Harmon Bowers, tour committee chairman.

The tour is open to the public and is sponsored by county home demonstration clubs. Persons wishing to attend should meet in the Buhl city park at 2 p. m. May 2. Another tour will be taken of Twin Falls homes May 3, but plans are not yet complete, Mrs. Bowers said.

Harder Home First

First stop will be made at the Carl Harder home, one mile south and one and one-fourth miles west of Buhl. It is a frame construction story and one-half colonial home built about 14 years ago. The interior is furnished in typical colonial fashion. One of the features is a den adjoining the kitchen with picture windows overlooking the farm.

Second stop will be at the Frank Zach home, four and one-half miles west of Buhl. This home was built of cinder blocks and was designed by Zach's son. It features several picture windows and a convenient hall connecting the kitchen, utility room, bath and bedrooms. A full basement contains a rumpus room, shower room and two spare bedrooms.

Benfien Home Third

Next stop will be at the Walter C. Benfien home one-fourth mile east of Buhl. It is an example of how an older house can be made into a handy, well-lighted, livable farm home, Mrs. Bowers said. All available space is put to good use.

The LaVerne Machacek residence two miles east of Buhl on the Clear Lakes road will be inspected next. It is a modern, two-bedroom home of purma stone planned and built by Machacek and his father. Its outstanding feature is the type of material used in construction. It is one of the first homes in Magic Valley built of purma stone.

Fait Home Last

Last stop will be at the Roy Fait home, 905 Broadway north, Buhl. A combination of brick and frame was used in the construction. It has been copied several times in California, Iowa and Boise, according to Mrs. Bowers. Fait planned it for convenient living and cleaning. It features all storage space at a convenient height and rooms that can be entered without crossing another.

Fait is building another house he expects to have completed by May 1. This home is his idea of a small but completely modern house built for the average income family, according to Mrs. Bowers. If sufficient time is left the tour will visit this home, also.

Last Rite Is Held For Irwin Appell

Funeral services for Irwin Appell were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Twin Falls mortuary chapel, with the Rev. C. L. Clark officiating.

Mrs. Nellie Ostrom was the musician.

Pallbearers were William K. Potts, Ed Maher, L. W. Folsom, Harold Morrison, William L. Hendricks and Lester Lowe.

Interment was made in Twin Falls cemetery.

Kiwanians Meet

FILER, April 22—Guests at the luncheon meeting of the Filer Kiwanis club Tuesday were the Rev. R. C. Muhly and Charles Sieber, both Twin Falls. The Rev. Mr. Muhly, lieutenant governor of the Utah-Idaho Kiwanis district, spoke on optimism.

Resident Observes Her 87th Anniversary, Recalls Events

Mrs. Mary E. Clark, resident of Pioneer park in Twin Falls, celebrated her 87th birthday anniversary with relatives and friends by recalling events of her life.

Mrs. Clark was born Mary Brown April 16, 1863, in Washington, D. C. She moved with her parents to Norton county, Kans., in 1872. During her childhood she experienced the life of a pioneer, living through floods, grasshopper plagues and Indian attacks. Many times the family was forced to put household belongings in wagons and band with the neighbors to find a place where the people would be able to defend themselves from Indians.

When she was 19, Mary Brown was married to Chester B. Posson. She was the mother of five children, with two of them dying in infancy. Still living are E. A. Posson and Mrs. R. B. Gunter, both Twin Falls, and Mrs. Ray Jackman, Filer.

In the spring of 1886 the family moved to a farm near Ewing, Nebr., and moved into town in 1907, where Posson was a carpenter until his death in 1913.

Mrs. Posson was married to W. F. Clark in February, 1920, and moved to Crawford, Nebr., where Clark died March 31, 1930. In 1938 Mrs. Clark came to Twin Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Gunter. She made her home with them until two years ago, when she moved to Filer. She passes the time by crocheting and doing hand sewing.

Twenty-one friends and relatives were present at a birthday party in Mrs. Clark's honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zimmerman and family near Tuttle last Sunday.

Police Discover Man Attempted To Pass Check

Officer Claude Wiley should have little trouble finding a fellow who tried to cash a bad check at a local bar.

After lengthy questioning, the bar operator described the man as looking 35 to 45 years old, dressed "sorta" in work clothes, maybe six feet tall and kinda dark.

According to Wiley the conversation went like this:

Operator: A guy tried to cash a bum check here awhile ago.

Wiley: Who was it?

Operator: I don't know. He has been around here all day.

Wiley: What name did he use on the check?

Operator: I don't know. I didn't pay much attention.

Wiley: What bank was it drawn on?

Operator: I didn't notice.

Wiley: What does he look like?

Operator: Oh, he's about 35 or 45 years old.

Wiley: How tall is he?

Operator: A tall slim fellow.

Wiley: Well, how tall—six feet?

Operator: Yeah, maybe.

Wiley: Light or dark?

Operator: Kinda dark.

Wiley: How was he dressed?

Operator: Sorta in work clothes.

Wiley: When did this happen?

Operator: Bout two hours ago.

Wiley: Why didn't you call then?

Operator: Well I was busy and I just now thought about it.

Blaze Snuffed by Village Firemen; Disaster Averted

HAGERMAN, April 22—Quick action on the part of the Hagerman fire department prevented what could have been a disastrous fire in the warehouse building behind Brown's cafe.

The fire broke out in the front of the building about 9:30 a.m. today and in a matter of minutes the dressed and the chicken in the warehouse contained extra cafe supplies. Volunteer Fireman Sylvan Clark said the damage was estimated at $250.

Clark pointed out the fire department has been organized only since October and if the fire had occurred before that time the entire business district would have been wiped out before help could have been obtained from Wendell.

Volunteer firemen who helped put out the blaze were Bob Cwnlay, Don Mendenhall, Merle Owsley, Bob Lawson, Bill Frescher and Clark.

Pioneer Resident Passes in Boise

HAZELTON, April 22—Funeral services for Mrs. A. W. Hartley, 75, Boise, will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Sumner funeral home in Boise. She died Thursday at St. Luke's hospital.

Mrs. Hartley was the wife of A. B. Hartley, former Hazelton and Boise resident, who is remembered here for his efforts in behalf of securing adequate water rights for the settlers of the first segregation of the North Side Land and Water company project.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley were among the pioneer settlers of the Twin Falls area, having settled on a farm near Hazelton in 1908 which they operated until their retirement in 1937. At that time they moved to Boise where they built a home and resided.

Mrs. Hartley is survived by two daughters, Mrs. O. K. Hine, Berkeley, Calif., and Mrs. C. V. True, Boise; one son, George R. Hartley, Murtaugh; one brother, Frank C. Lyon, Anton, Ia., six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Building Started

WENDELL, April 22—Construction has started here on a new building which will house the Idaho Power company offices.

G. D. MacQuivey said the cinder-block construction building would be ready for occupancy by June 1. It is 25 feet by 70 feet with offices in front and a double garage in back, he said.

Pond Enlarged

FAIRFIELD, April 22—Enlarging of the Wendell Mill and Lumber company pond here is now being made by Fuller and Green, logging contractors.

Charles Fuller has moved his family here from Emmett and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Green and family will reside at Pine this summer.

Confused

Mrs. E. U. McIntire, Kimberly, almost relieved her husband of the yearly garden chores Friday afternoon.

She appeared at the police station at 4:17 p.m. with a new shovel, pitch fork and rubber boots she found in her car parked in the 200 block of Shoshone street north.

She told police she didn't know where they came from. She waited until the time on the parking meter ran out hoping the person who evidently left them in the wrong car would return, she told police.

A short time later her husband also entered the police station. He collected the new tools, explaining he had purchased and put them in the car without his wife's knowledge.

Minor Injury Results From Car Accident

Minor injuries and $200 damages resulted from one of four accidents investigated by city and county authorities Friday and Saturday.

Dill Trautman, 720 Alt street, was treated for minor injuries and released from the Twin Falls county hospital Friday evening following an accident in which his truck overturned. The mishap occurred about 5 p.m. on a county road two miles south of the intersection of U. S. highways 93 and 30.

Brakes Failed

Trautman told state police he attempted to make a turn and his brakes failed. The truck rolled over, resulting in an estimated $200 damage.

A minor accident occurred at 11:20 a.m. Saturday in an alley in the 200 block between Shoshone street south and Second street south. A 1937 sedan driven by James Watson, jr., 28, collided with a 1948 pickup truck driven by Marion O. Langdon, 39, 100 Fourth avenue west.

Both vehicles were damaged slightly.

Car Damaged

Mrs. Robert Stevens, 170 Jackson street, told police someone ran into the rear of her car while it was parked in the business district Saturday morning.

A second office report of car damage came from Vernon McCowan, Jerome, who told police he backed his pickup truck into a tan four-door sedan at 6:20 p.m. Saturday in a parking lot at Five Points west. Damage was minor, he reported.

Harry M. Kirton Passes at Home

Harry Melton Kirton, 74, died at 11:55 a.m. Friday while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Harry Holt, Twin Falls. He and his wife had been visiting Mrs. Holt and her family since January.

He was born March 29, 1876, at Des Moines, Ia. On Dec. 18, 1907, he married Mary J. Peck in Boyd, Okla.

The Kirtons ranched at Boyd until they came to Twin Falls last winter.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Kirton; a son, George Kirton, Boyd; a daughter, Mrs. Holt; a brother, R. W. Kirton, Kremlin, Okla.; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending. The body rests at the Twin Falls mortuary.

Stop and think, Thomas Jefferson and many other statesmen, not politicians, started our free enterprise system. The intentions were that the government would be a referee and the people would be the masters of our system.

The Hoover commission plainly points out how the government is wasting the labors of the people through wasting tax money. This commission also recommended to congress ways and means which we, the people, can stop waste in governmental departments and place our economy on a sound basis.

We wish to ask what you think of our economy. Many big economists believe our nation's economy is above normal and at all-time high.

With each and every family mortgaged by government debt to the tune of better than $7,500 on the average, how can we say that our economy is at its best?

Write to your congressmen and tell them to act on the recommendations of the Hoover commission reports in full, so that we can be well enough financially in the years ahead to fight off the ever-increasing power that is trying to do away with our way of life.

Justice of Peace Is Criticized for Handling of Case

Editor, Times-News:

Elected officials have a way of forgetting that they are servants of the public.

My latest experience with one, a justice of the peace, leaves me quite bitter. This justice of the peace, elected by the people, is J. O. Pumphrey.

I caught a man in the act of stealing meat from food lockers. I called the police, had the man arrested and signed a complaint against him. I suspected but could not prove that the man had been stealing meat from other lockers. One patron who kept a list of meat in his locker had definite proof that 24 packages of meat, mostly steak, had been taken from his locker.

I had intended to press action against the man in the hope we could make an example of his case. In that way we could discourage anyone who had similar ideas.

Justice Pumphrey—not me—I would be informed when the man's case came up for trial. He had pleaded not guilty and was scheduled to stand trial on March 30. The trial was postponed when the man was jailed on another charge.

Then I picked up my paper on Sunday, April 9, to read that the man had pleaded guilty, paid a fine of $50 and had judgment deferred for six months on a jail sentence of 90 days.

I was never informed the case was to appear in court. I had no chance to be present or plan any action. And this justice of the peace had assured me he would inform me of the date and time when the case would be heard.

Who's electing officials and why? Is it justice to fine a man, 40 years old, three times in about 30 days, knowing his parents will have to pay the fine? Who's being punished?

Protest on Estate Granted by Judge

HAILEY, April 23—Judge John M. Wright has approved a petition of George R. Weinbrenner that letters of administration and will of his father, George P. Weinbrenner, be issued to the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company as administrator.

Weinbrenner had contested the application of his mother for letters of administration. Her plea was filed last October and was contested by her son's petition in December.

The will leaves Blaine county property to the mother and property in the east to the late Mr. Weinbrenner's two sons, George R. and Paul.

Husband Asking For Divorce Rule

Bruce E. Farnworth charges Norma J. Farnworth with extreme mental cruelty in a divorce complaint filed Saturday in district court. He claims his wife drinks excessively and has been associating with another man.

Community property consists of $400 worth of household furnishings. Farnworth agrees to award it to the wife. They have no children.

They were married July 13, 1946, in Elko, Nev. Guy L. Kinney represents the husband.

Club Lectured on Portrait Lighting

A demonstration on portrait lighting was given by Ed Pettigrove at the meeting of the Twin Falls Photo club held Tuesday in the basement of the Sporter.

Pettigrove displayed portraits to emphasize the effects of various types of lighting.

The next meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Sporter. The subject will be "portrait coloring."

Divorces Are Given Trio in District Court

Three divorce decrees were awarded Friday by District Judge Kaine E. Lowe on grounds of cruelty. None were contested and defaults were entered for the defendants.

Hazel Barry Buhl won a divorce from Arthur Barry and custody of their four children, Phyllis, Barbara, Lenore and Marilyn.

Married in Montana

Peggy married Calvin F. 1937, at Missoula, Mont. The plaintiff filed suit for divorce March 24, 1950, charging her husband with extreme cruelty. His attorney was J. W. Taylor.

Leif Thomsen, 38, Jerome county, was granted a divorce from Shirley Thomsen, Hailey, Ore., on grounds of cruelty. The couple was married Oct. 1, 1949, at Winnemucca, Nev. One patron who kept a list of meat in his locker had definite proof that 24 packages of meat, mostly steak, had been taken from his locker.

Sympathy, Work Termed Answer To World's Ills

OAKLEY, April 22—"The greatest need of the modern world is for capital to manifest sympathy for the worker and for labor to be willing to give a good old-fashioned, honest day's work." That was the advice of John R. Stowers to a group celebrating the 55th wedding anniversary of Stowers and his wife.

They were married April 17, 1895, at Valentine, Nebr. They moved from South Dakota to Oakley in 1925.

They have five children, 27 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. Three children, 24 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren were among those present for the anniversary fete held at the home of Bishop and Mrs. Wilford W. Sagers.

Stockholders get 5¢ from each Union Oil 1949 sales dollar

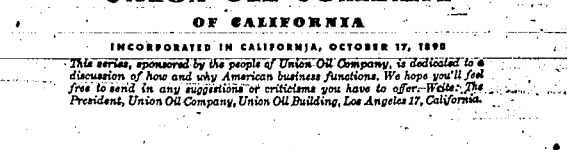

1. Out of every dollar paid in by Union Oil customers during 1949 the company made a net profit of 8¼¢. 8¼¢ of this was put into expanded facilities to meet the growing demand for petroleum products in the West. 5¢ was paid out to the stockholders in dividends. Since these dividends were divided among 37,245 preferred and common stockholders, the payments averaged $315 per stockholder.

2. Out of every dollar paid in by Union Oil customers during 1949 the employees received 14¢ in wages, pensions and other employee benefits. Since these wages and benefits were divided among 7,316 employees, they averaged about $4,700 per employee.

2. Out of every dollar paid in by Union Oil customers during 1949 the federal, state and local tax collectors got 18¾¢. So the tax collectors got almost 4 times as much money as the owners and 1 1/3 times as much as the employees.

*This figure represents taxes on all our products—fuel oils, asphalt, lube oil, greases and gasoline. When our customers buy gasoline, 8½¢ of each dollar they spend goes to the tax collectors.

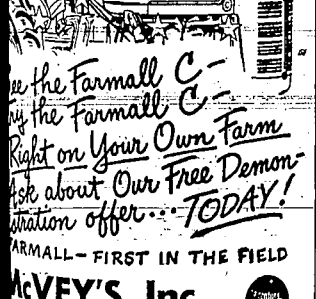

4. "Cost of Doing Business and Expansion and Replacement of Facilities" includes following:

Raw materials	26½¢

Mrs. Gilbert McGill, jr., is the leader of a new group of Blue Birds from Washington school. Sonja Ambrose was elected president and Phyllis McGill, secretary-treasurer. The group has had one party. The girls have made greeting cards and are now working on Mother's day gifts. They met at the home of the leader.

Spring

Because the first meeting was on the first day of spring, Mrs. Clyde Koontz' new Blue Bird group chose "Spring" for its name. Mrs. Thomas Peavey is assistant leader and the Union Pacific Boosters club is the sponsor.

Karen Koontz was elected president; Edwina Hinton, vice president; Glenda Porter, secretary; Patty Ney, treasurer; Frances Peavey, song leader, and Carol Lindsey, monitor. Carlyn Brown and Aneene Pullman are in charge of

The group has had one party at the home of Carlyn Brown. The girls have had one meeting of creative art work and have taken a field trip. They visited radio station KLIX. They have drawn names for secret pals.

Daffodil

Mrs. C. J. Sliger and Mrs. W. L. Reed are leaders of the new group of Blue Birds, the "Daffodils," sponsored by the Episcopal church. There are 16 girls in the group. They met in the recreation room of the church Wednesday to discuss the general order for the coming meetings.

Maywaknah

This Camp Fire group made plans for Mother's day gifts at the meeting last week at the home of the guardian, Mrs. H. L. Ainsworth. The girls are making plans for a baseball team.

Wahanka

The Wahanka Camp Fire group and the Cantewasteya group presented a program for St. Edward's PTA last week. Refreshments were served to the group at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Oliver Anderson is guardian.

Daisy

This Blue Bird group had a candy sale last week to earn money for group activities. The girls met at the Methodist church to plan a Mother's day party. Ruby Lindhardt, president, conducted the business session. The girls visited the police station recently.

Fairy

The Fairy Blue Birds have been learning square dances in preparation for the program at a Mother's day tea soon. They are making gifts for their mothers. Mrs. Ralph B. Wright is leader of the group.

Welcome

This Blue Bird group went on a hike last week accompanied by the leaders, Mrs. Jean Miller and Mrs. Earl Faulkner.

Syringa

The Syringa Blue Bird group went on a fox trot party at the home of Polly and Donna Holt at their home. The girls served refreshments at the close of the meeting. Patsy Butler was guest as a recent meeting. Games were played and plans made for Mother's day gifts which will be made. Mrs. A. B. Chamberlain is the group leader, assisted by Mrs. Ray Butler.

Mokiwaga

The Mokiwaga Camp Fire Girls are making plans for the picnic and hobby show to be held after school Wednesday at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Frank Briggs. They have invited the Odalisk group as special guests.

Mickey Hulbert was elected president; Susan Fewsse, vice president; Jo Anne Parsons, secretary; Sandra Bowman, treasurer; Maryl Jo Yoacambe, and Wilma Ann Wright, assistant. Refreshments were served by Judy Bracken.

Hanakoona

This group earned honors in business craft by demonstrating how to approach prospective customers when selling things to earn money for Camp Fire. The girls met at the home of the guardian, Mrs. H. M. Soper, and made plans for Mother's day.

Oceontaka

Final plans for a guest party were made by this group. It will be held Friday at the home of Phyllis Gugelman. The girls also completed plans for an all-day hike Saturday. They will cook outdoor meals to complete requirements for rank. Mrs. H. L. Dessenberger and Mrs. Earl Lake are helping the girls in their activities.

Cantewasteya

This group is making plans for a group council fire Friday. Mrs. Louis Thorson is guardian and Mrs. Robert Reese is assistant.

Kawasi

A boy-girl party was held by the girls in this group at the Labor temple Saturday afternoon. Each girl invited her boy friend and they played games and went roller skating. Refreshments were served. Mrs. A. D. Miller, guardian, and Irene Miller assisted with the party.

Couple Marry in Evening Rites at Lutheran Church

In the presence of 100 wedding guests, Rebecca Dana Olsen, Twin Falls, daughter of Wendell Olsen, Sacramento, Calif., became the bride of Theodore Robert Becher, Boise, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Becher, Twin Falls. The Rev. R. C. Mosby of the Immanuel Lutheran church led the couple in the vows the evening of April 15 in the church.

Miss Olsen, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown trimmed in lace and fashioned with lace sleeves and a net yoke. Her veil was caught to a coronet of flowers and she carried pink roses and carnations.

Mrs. Albert Becher, Boise, gowned in white organdy over aqua, was the matron of honor and carried a bouquet of aqua carnations. Mrs. Arthur Becher, Spokane, Wash., dressed in white and yellow and carrying yellow carnations, was the bridesmaid. Both attendants wore Dutch caps with matching flowers.

Albert Becher was the best man and Frank Lawrence, Thomas Gartney and Arthur Becher, Spokane, were ushers.

Ruth Becher was the soloist.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, with Shirley Davis in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Dorothy Holt and Mrs. Martha Martens assisting.

The bride is a graduate of Gooding high school and St. Joseph's hospital school of nursing, Tacoma, Wash.

Becher is a Twin Falls high school graduate and attended the University of Idaho, where he was affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

For the wedding trip, the bride chose a navy suit with navy and red accessories. They will make their home in Boise.

Guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Armind List and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Salladay, Jerome; Mrs. V. T. Montgomery, Boise, and Dick Gourley, Nampa.

Poets Studied

SHOSHONE, April 22—Two 17th century poets, John Donne and Ben Jonson, were studied at the LDS Relief society meeting Tuesday afternoon at the IOOF hall. Mrs. Burton Thorne presented the literary lesson.

Mrs. Arthur Hall, president, was in charge of the short business meeting.

Bills of Congress Discussions Held At WCTU Meet

KIMBERLY, April 22—Mrs. Reed Moody, Nampa, state president of the Women's Christian Temperance union, assisted with the first district's spring institute held in the Christian church here Tuesday.

During the afternoon meeting, Mrs. Moody reported on the Langer bill hearing held in Washington, D. C., in January. She was one of 40 state presidents who attended the hearing. She said the bill, which is for transportation in interstate commerce of alcoholic beverage advertising and stop broadcasts. She said more than 80 well-known men and women gave testimony favoring the bill.

Mrs. R. A. Drake, Twin Falls, district vice president, presided at the two-session meeting. There was also present by about 50 members and friends. The Rev. James Bradford, pastor of the host church, gave the morning devotions. The Rev. W. T. Armstrong, pastor of the Kimberly Nazarene church, sang a solo, accompanied by his son, Mrs. J. M. Pierce, Twin Falls, led in the flag salutes.

Reports from various unions in the district were given by the following presidents: Mrs. Leo Kirley, Buhl; Mrs. Wayne Creasey, Filer; Mrs. William Hermanig, Kimberly, and Mrs. Dale Fiske, Rupert. Mrs. Anna Irwin, Twin Falls, secretary, reported.

Mrs. Hallie Conrad, Kimberly, reported on YTG work and Mrs. Emma Masoner, Rupert, reported on LTL work being conducted in the district.

Special music at the morning session also included a duet by Mrs. Blanche Harding and Mrs. Fiske of the Rupert union. They were accompanied by Jean Thomas, Kimberly. Two piano solos were played by Mrs. I. O. Goodding, Twin Falls.

Mrs. Harmaning and Mrs. Pierce were appointed to the membership committee; Mrs. Jake Wall, Rupert, and Mrs. Irwin, to the courtesy committee; Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Goodding to the resolutions committee, and Mrs. Kirsley and Mrs. Conrad, to the subscriptions committee.

During the business meetings the minutes of the fall convention held at Rupert were read by Mrs. J. W. Carrel, Twin Falls, district recording secretary. Mrs. Wall gave the treasurer's report.

Plans were made to contribute $5 to the work of the world's WCTU and to get a subscription to the Union Signal for Mrs. H. C. Hendricks, Japan missionary.

Mrs. Bethel B. Day, Gooding, offered the noon prayer. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Kinsella, Jerome. The Filer union exhibited 35 posters entered in a contest by 225 pupils in five different schools.

Mrs. Ray Blake, Twin Falls, conducted the afternoon devotions. Mrs. A. B. Neufeld, Filer, sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Conrad. The Rev. Mr. Pyke, Jerome, showed a film. The afternoon offering was given to the Rev. Mr. Pike to help him in his temperance work.

Mrs. Harold Hallock, president of the Twin Falls union, spoke on the legislative program adopted by the national convention in Philadelphia last summer. She urged members to write their senators and congressmen regarding important social measures before congress.

Mrs. Kirley gave a talk on "The Home" and Mrs. Homer Schnell, Filer, presented a reading entitled, "A Mother's Appeal to Alcohol."

Mrs. Moody announced the national convention would be held in Denver, Colo., from Sept. 13 to 19, and Mrs. Glenn Hicks, national recording secretary, will be a speaker at the Idaho state WCTU convention in the fall.

Other musical selections during the afternoon included a vocal duet by Mrs. Mae Freeman and Mrs. Mollie Hughes, both Buhl, accompanied by Mrs. Carrel, and a piano solo by Sarah P. Morris, Rupert.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

One of the parents' favorite remarks to adolescent sons and daughters is that hopeful, rather meaningless phrase, "When I was your age." What is the use? Our boys and girls were born into a world to which we are comparative strangers. More than likely the father or mother who says this in reproof drove horses or walked to a party in his day; wrote notes instead of telephoning; had a house with big rooms in it for entertaining. Our children were born into a world of machines. Is it odd that they don't understand our fears concerning their use of them?

Our modern contrivances that make speed the accustomed thing, that brings distance to the mind of the lingerie, life on the far side of the earth into our living rooms, are the ordinary matters of everyday life to young people. As far as they know this is the usual way. They wonder at our fears for them, our reluctance to allow them to use these fast-moving powerful tools of society.

Our fears are grounded in experience. We know what effects these machines can have on the bodies and minds, on the characters, of those who use them. Knowing the inexperience of the young people, we hesitate to allow them free, full use of them. And that caution is well taken.

We don't do enough teaching in this field of experience. The children pick up what knowledge they can of these machines and put it to use as soon as they can. When we try to prevent their use we can and usually do circumvent us and so doing often get into trouble. We should start early to teach children about the speed machine, how they work, what they can do, their usefulness, their dangers and their care.

In the days of horses, children were taught to care for and use them. The boy always, often the girl, was taught how to groom a horse, how to harness him, drive and care for him. That was part of their education toward usefulness as well as happiness. Of course, the horse was alive and often he was a loved member of the family. But a large part of the affection felt for the horse rose out of the personal care the young person gave him. I see boys bestowing deep affection, pure care, on the cars they are allowed to care for and use.

This is a new world to many grown people. At old one to most of them. It is our part to teach what we know, what will enable the young people to live wisely and happily in the world, the only world they can know.

RUPERT PIRATES SHOW POWER WITH WIN IN ANNUAL RELA

Twin Falls Places Second As Winds Hamper Runners

RUPERT, April 22—With a display of unexpected strength, the Rupert Pirates captured the team championship here today in the third annual Rupert Relays, largest high school track event in Idaho. The favored Twin Falls Bruins placed second.

Strong winds and cloudy skies hampered the field of nearly 400 performers and kept any possible winning records from being recognized. Records, however, were established in the broadjump, hig jump and discus.

The Pirates annexed team honors with 29 points, followed by Twin Falls with 23¾, Pocatello, 20¼, and Madison of Rexburg, 19.

Other point totals were Nampa, 15¼; Burley, 14¾; Idaho Falls, 13¼; Heyburn, 8; Blackfoot, 7; Aberdeen, 7; Oakley, 6¼; Buhl, 5; Mountain Home, 3; St. Anthony, 2; Ashton, 2; Gooding, 1, and Hansen, 1.

Many Schools Represented

Many other teams from all sections of Idaho were represented but could not break into the point column in the strong field of competitors.

The Boise track and field team did not show up as expected last year Boise tied for second with Twin Falls. Idaho Falls was the defending champion.

Wilson of Madison established a new discus record with a heave of 129 feet and four inches. The previous mark, 128 feet, 10 inches, was set last year by Vurbon, Shelley.

New Broadjump Record

Crawford, Pocatello, set a new broadjump record with a leap of 20 feet, seven and three-fourths inches. He bettered the mark of 20 feet and one inch set in 1949 by Exter of Idaho Falls.

A new mark also went into the records for the 180-yard low hurdles. Although it cannot be recognized as official because of the wind velocity estimated at 20 miles per hour, it is the first time the event has been run at 180 yards. The previous low hurdle race was 200 yards.

Lee Hunter, Rupert, won an unexpected victory in the 180-yard hurdles when he ran the event in 20.8 seconds. Buster Eoff, Nampa, the favorite who also won the high hurdles, tripped and fell on the last hurdle. He headed Hunter by about a foot at that time.

Tie for Mark

Conners, Heyburn, and Marcus, Nampa, tied for honors in breaking the highjump record with jumps of five feet, eight and three-fourths inches. The previous mark of five feet and one-half inch was set last year by Jack Clark, Burley.

Times today best records established in the high hurdles, 100-yard dash, medley relay, freshman-sophomore medley relay, 220-yard dash, and mile relay.

Meet results include:

Shotput—Pilsen, Aberdeen; Wilson, Madison; Lastimoro, Pocatello, and Fredericksen, Ashton, distance, 41 feet, 8½ inches.

180-yard high hurdles—Eoff, Nampa; Wasden, Idaho Falls; Martin, Burley, and Hays, Rupert. Time: 20.8.

100-yard dash—Noble, Madison; Bledsoe, Mountain Home; Dentler, Twin Falls, and Leeper, Gooding. Time: 10.4.

Mile run—Petitt, Pocatello; Gerber, Idaho Falls; Brown, Rupert, and Horner, Madison. Time: 4:44.1.

880-yard relay—Twin Falls, Blackfoot, Pocatello and Burley. Time: 1:37.4.

440-yard dash—Brockie, Rupert; Meeves, Manual Rosenberg, Madison, and Robertson, Ashton. Time: 54 flat.

180-yard low hurdles—Hunter, Rupert; Eoin, Nampa; Wasden, Idaho Falls, and Martin, Burley. Time: 20.8.

Highjump—Conners, Heyburn, and Marcus, Nampa, tied for first, Crawford, Pocatello, Hunter, Idaho Falls, and Gorring, Buhl, tied for second, Crawford, fourth. Heights: Five feet, eight and three-fourth inches.

880-yard dash—Clark, Twin Falls; Bateman, Rupert; Warren, Nampa; Nelson, Madison. Time: 1:07.2.

Javelin—Rice, Rupert; Martell, Burley; Henderson, Aberdeen, and Fhield, Rexburg. Distance: 158 feet, two and one-fourth inches.

Medley relay—Buhl, Idaho Falls, Pocatello, and Rupert. Time: 3:42.15.

Discus—Wilson, Madison; Taylor, Oakley; Cross, Twin Falls, and Howe, Hansen. Distance: 129 feet, four inches.

Polevault—Schneider, Rupert, and Manning, Burley, tied for first, and Dr. Gorings, Oakley; Larsen, Idaho Falls; Ford, Twin Falls, and Martell, Burley, tied for second. Height and depth: Seven-10-feet five inches.

Freshman medley relay—Rupert, Idaho Falls, Burley and Gooding. Time: 3:44.3.

Broadjump—Crawford, Pocatello; Conners, Heyburn; Gorings, Oakley, and Cross, Twin Falls, distance 20 feet, seven and three-fourths inches.

220-yard dash—Cross, Twin Falls; Harper, Idaho Falls; Petit, Pocatello, and Hansen, Idaho Falls. Time: 24 flat.

Cobb Sees End for Quest of Speed Mark

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Never again, in all probability, will a great, squat monster of an automobile go roaring across the salt flats out in Utah in quest of the world land speed record.

"It is the end of an era, I'm afraid," says John Cobb, the big English fur broker who holds the recognized mark of 394.2 miles an hour set at Bonneville flats in 1947.

"I haven't heard of anyone who plans to have a go at my record, and unless someone betters it I do not intend to make any more runs. I'm 50 now, and I'll give them five more years before I chuck it," he said somewhat sadly.

Cobb has been hers exhibiting the three-ton, 2,800-horsepower Railton Mobil special in which he set the existing record.

"She's still in perfect condition," Cobb said fondly.

Cost About $50,000

"When I had it built before the war it cost me only about $50,000, but it would cost at least twice that now—at least twice. I imagine that's one reason the chaps are not having a go at my record.

"Another reason is, I suppose, that just about the ultimate has been reached in reciprocating engines and that there remains no real room for improvement."

Cobb was a ferry pilot in the war, but he says it was tame stuff compared to his breath-taking runs in the Railton.

"No sense of speed up there—nothing like the sensation of skimming along at 400 miles an hour with your seat only a foot off the ground," he said.

Averaged 403

"You know, I averaged 403 for my first run in setting the record, but was somewhat slower going back.

"At that speed you really have to be up to the mark. If the slightest deviation isn't corrected instantly you are in a bad way.

"I think the worst sensation was after I had passed the mile mark and was coasting. It seemed I would go on forever without slowing down. I couldn't begin, braking until I was under 300. It seemed like hours."

Jet Car Next

Cobb was asked if he thought it within the realm of possibility that a jet-propelled number might be built to attack his record.

"I suppose such a car might be built," he said reflectively, "but it would not qualify for a try at my record. My record is for a car in which the wheels are powered. Jets simply would thrust the car along on the wheels. There's a great difference."

ABC Fined For Stand on Race Question

CHICAGO, April 22 (AP)—The American Bowling congress narrowly escaped a court order revoking its charter today and was fined $7,500 for limiting its membership to white males.

Superior Court Judge John A. Sbarbaro originally directed that the state charter of the nation's largest bowling group be revoked. However, he substituted the fine to allow the congress to revise its by-laws at its convention in Columbus May 8.

Waits for Action

The judge, who won the Chicago Stags of the National Basketball association, said if he ordered the charter revocation, the ABC "would not be able to meet to vote a change."

However," he added, "I want it understood that my intention is to allow the state to oust the ABC charter."

Floyd E. Thompsoh, attorney for the ABC, termed the ruling "clearly erroneous" and said an appeal will be made.

D. H. Baumgarten, ABC secretary, declined comment in Columbus, where the congress' tournament is underway. Other officials were not immediately available.

Has Giant Membership

The ABC was chartered in Illinois in 1895 and now has 1,500,000 members. Its annual tournament is recognized as the biggest event in bowling.

State's Attorney John S. Boyle filed suit against ABC on Oct. 24, asking that the charter be revoked or that the congress be fined and ordered to amend its restrictive rules.

The suit contended that the congress incites to racial discrimination by limiting membership to white males. The suit added that the ABC rules violate the Illinois constitution and the civil rights section of the criminal code.

ISC Wins Nampa Invitational Race

NAMPA, April 22 (AP)—Idaho State college won an invitational Northwest Nazarene college invitational track meet today, but Don Wisdom, Northern Idaho College of Education sprinter, copped top individual honors.

The Bengals scored 54¼ points to beat out Northwest Nazarene college with 42¾. Other team scores were Northern Idaho College of Education, 31½; Eastern Oregon College of Education, 20; Boise Junior college, 9¾, and College of Idaho, 4½.

Priddy Fined for Breaking Curfew

DETROIT, April 22—(AP)—Detroit Tiger second baseman Gerry Priddy was fined by the ball club today for violating curfew rules in a tour of taverns with a Detroit detective last night.

Manager Red Rolfe called a special press conference before today's Detroit-Chicago game to announce levying the fine, but he declined to disclose the amount.

Past guesses were between $50 and $100.

Joe Bowman of Great Falls Is Among Happier Managers With Veteran Team

LEWISTON, April 22 (AP)—Joe Bowman, Great Falls, should be one of the happier managers in the Pioneer baseball league.

Back for his second year as pilot of the Selectics, Bowman has much brighter prospects than at this time last year. Great Falls has more veterans than most teams in the league have.

On opening day at Pocatello Friday the Montana club could put a veteran infield and a strong outfield into play. Things might be brighter in a pitching way, but club officials are attempting to add mound strength.

The Selectrics would like to get rid of the injury plague that ridded them last year and held them to fifth place. At one time they were in second place in 1949. As the season wore on 15 of 17 regular players suffered injuries. The pitching staff was hit hardest.

Bowman, who played in both the National and American leagues; Jack Scott, Maryland Park; Larry Manier, Vance Thurston and George Korhonten are expected to be the mound mainstays.

Scott (14-11) led the Selectrics last year. Park (12-10) was second and Manier (9-10) third. Thurston won 9 and lost 17 for the Idaho Falls Russetts, the league's cellar team.

Tommy Puchl, Maurice Sandmeyer and Dave Manlier are rookie moundsmen.

Bill Staker will probably start at first base. Lou Brigandi at second, Chuck Brayton or Don Stewart at third and John Angelone at shortstop.

Brayton joined the Selectrics late in the training season after being dropped by the Spokane Indians. Stewart, popular utility man last year, has been developing rapidly at third.

Bowman's double-play boys—Brigandi and Angelone—are fast hitters and swift on the baspaths.

Brigandi was acquired from Bremerton in the Western International league. Angelone joined the Selectrics from Denver in the Western class A circuit.

Staker, who came from Aberdeen in the Northern league, has been working well at first base—a weak spot in the infield last year.

In left field will be Hammerin' Hank Borch, who hit 310 last season; in center, Al Koerner, last year's most popular player; in right field Don Jordan or Dave Romano.

Borch has changed his batting stance and his been denting the boards. Koerner is a long-ball hitter. Last season he hit four consecutive homeruns. Romano and Jordan are both speed merchants.

In the catching department Lee Winter, who played before hometown fans at Wenatchee last year, is the No. 1 man. Winter is starting his fourth year in baseball. He will be supported by Eddie Tanner, a rookie from Dewitney, B.C. Bowman said he is "satisfied" with his catching lineup for the present anyway.

Great Falls failed last winter in its effort to get a working agreement with the Cleveland Indians and will continue to operate as an independent team. Its general manager is Nick Mariana, once a standout player at Montana State university.

Great Falls was a hot baseball town despite its team's fifth place finish. Attendance in 1949 was around 130,000.

Bowman was quietly optimistic as the squad, which has been training with other teams in this "banana belt," prepared to break camp.

Pinch-Hit Homer in 15th Frame Gives A's 6-5 Nod Over Bosox

By the Associated Press

Pinch-hitter Paul Lehner opened the last half of the 15th inning with a homerun off relief pitcher Ellis Kinder to give the Philadelphia Athletics a 6-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the major league's longest game this season.

Lehner, who was thrown into a deal by the St. Louis Browns last winter that sent third baseman Bob Dillinger to the Athletics for $100,000 and four players, handed Kinder a 23-game winner in 1949 his second straight loss of the campaign. The diminutive outfielder batted for left-hander Alex Kellner who went the route for the A's, allowing 12 hits while walking eight and striking out eight.

Ferris Fain's homerun in the fifth tied the score at 4-4.

Boston broke the tie in the seventh on two walks and Tom O'Brien's clutch single. But the A's chased Stobbs in the eighth and tied the count on singles by Mike Guerra, Kellner and Eddie Joost. That's the way it remained until Lehner's payoff shot over the rightfield wall.

The Cleveland Indians matched their bats and Bob Feller's pitching against the young St. Louis Browns and psychologist Dr. David W. Tracy—and the Indians won 6-2.

It was the first victory in three starts for the Indians this season and likewise it was the Browns first defeat against two victories.

Washington outfielder Gil Coan singled with two out in the 10th inning to score Eddie Yost from second base and give the Senators a 7-6 triumph over the New York Yankees.

Joe Page, sterling relief pitcher, was the victim of Coan's clout to center. The durable Page was making his fourth appearance in five games for the world champions.

Youthful Art Houtteman turned in his second win of the young American league season as he blanked the Chicago White Sox 5-0 to give the Detroit Tigers their fourth straight triumph before a crowd of 15,548.

Houtteman pitched a masterful game, allowing only four hits, as nary a Chicagoan got to third base.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, helped by an error by rookie first baseman Jack Harshman, shaded the New York Giants, 7-6, for their third straight victory of the season. The loss was the Giants fourth of a winless campaign.

Harshman's error, a wild pitch and George Shuba's double down the rightfield foul line broke a 6-6 tie in the eighth inning.

The Pittsburgh Pirates kept their heavy artillery rattling, smashing out four homeruns to crush the Cincinnati Reds 9-2 for their fourth straight triumph.

Ralph Kiner skyrocketed his second round tripper of the season over the leftfield wall for probably the longest homer of his career. The 500-footer cleared the fence by more than 60 feet and was gaining height as it left the park.

Roy Smalley smashed a homer in the ninth inning to lift the Chicago Cubs to a 7-6 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals. Score—24,122. It was the third straight victory of the season for the Cubs and their second over the Redbirds.

Boston's unbeaten Braves won their third victory of the infant National league season today, shading Philadelphia's spirited Phillies 3-2 on Bob Elliott's two-run homer into the right field bull pen in the eighth inning.

Bruins Defeat Boise 11-6, Then Lose 15-4

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—Twin Falls and Boise high school baseball teams split a doubleheader today, the Bruins winning the first game 11-6, but falling victims to the two-hit pitching of Glen Osborn and losing 15-4 in the nightcap.

Second baseman Merlin Howard's first inning homerun with two aboard put Twin Falls into a lead it never relinquished in the first game.

Howard also smacked a double in the first game in going to the plate four times. Shortstop Eddie Allred hit three singles in five times up and Bob Palash had a single and double in four trips to the plate.

Palash lasted less than an inning against Boise in the second game, but after three other Bruin hurlers had no better success, he returned to the mound in the fourth inning to quiet a Boise uprising.

Howard had a single and two walks in his three batting appearances in the second game. Ray Davis got the only other Bruin hit, a second inning triple which accounted for one tally. Twin Falls scored twice in the third inning when Osborn fished up four consecutive walks.

OSC Trackmen Score Upset Over Vandals

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 22 (AP)—Oregon State swept the field events today in scoring an upset 76-55 win in a northern division Coast conference dual meet with the University of Idaho.

Coach Grant Swan's Beavers were shy on fleet-footed entries, but were first in all field competition and swept the highjump, shotput and broad jumps. Idaho took all the running events except the two-mile.

Broad jump—Ken Eliet, OSC, 6 feet, 4 inches; Porter, OSC; Rinestron, OSC. (Time meet record set by Dufresne, OSC, 1947.)

Shot put—Don Doley, OSC, 44 feet, 10¼ inches; Rinestron, OSC; Johnson, OSC.

880-yard run—Norm Farnham, Idaho; Leonard, OSC; Peterson, OSC. Time 2:16.7.

220-yard dash—Dick Newsom, Idaho; Christian, Idaho; Sparks, Idaho. Time 22.7.

Javelin—Royal Delaney, OSC, 192 feet, 8 inches; Cline, OSC; Rodgson, Ida.

Pole vault—Tied for first—Lyle Dicker and Jim Holmes, both OSC, 12 feet; E. Merideth, Idaho.

Two-mile run—Joe Fisher, OSC; Harper, Idaho; Hoffer, Idaho. Time: 9:39.7.

220-yard low hurdles—Keith Dean, Idaho; Wells, OSC; Turner, OSC. Time 24.

Broad jump—John Wells, OSC, 20 feet, 8 inches; Sheffield, OSC; McCafferty, OSC.

Discus—Lee Rinestrah, OSC, 144 feet, 9¼ inches; Morse, OSC; Hiner, Idaho.

SCI Loop to Elect Officers at Jerome

New officers to head the South Central Idaho baseball league will be elected at a meeting of the le 8 p.m. Thursday at the Jerome high school, Secretar Marlow, Twin Falls, announced Saturday.

Marlow said the league also is scheduled to elect for entering the National Baseball congress and adopt a league constitution and elect executive officers if the move is made.

Jack Hatch, Idaho commissioner for the NBC, was guest speaker at a meeting of the league in Twin Falls. He explained the work of the NBC, its past history and projects planned for the present and future.

He said the first NBC tournament was held 12 years ago in every state in the nation, Canada and 17 other foreign countries.

Hatch said the SCI league and a league operating in Idaho Falls are the only two semi-pro leagues in the state not in the NBC.

Rulon Budge, Burley, was elected temporary president of the league in the absence of Wil McElroy, who has moved to California.

Budge, who is also district commissioner for the NBC, announced the dates for the district and state semi-pro tournaments, which will be held this summer in Burley. The district tourney will be held July 20-23 and the state tourney Aug. 3-6.

Budge said he hopes the SCI league can become "bigger and better." A discussion was held on a tentative opening date for league play, and the length of the 1950 season.

Marlow announced that all teams who wish to play this s the SCI loop must be re at the meeting Thursday Teams not represented which have not contacte officers before Saturday be considered for play.

Marlow said the follo should be contacted if lea valley desire to join the cannot be present at th meeting.

Bob Blamires, Jerome tacting teams in Hailey Gulf; Budge is contacting Hazelton and Acequia; D Filer; M. Pelham, Shosho Ewing, Murtaugh; Mc and Hansen; Paul Schra Ollie Balmer, Mountain Glenns Ferry.

RGER'S COWBOYS NIP IDAHO FALLS RUSSETS IN 4-3 GAME

Club Plays Last Exhibition Game On Coast Today

BOYES SPRINGS, Calif., April 22 (Special)—The Twin Falls Cowboys made it two in a row over the Idaho Falls Russets here Friday afternoon by nipping their Pioneer league rival 4-3 in a closely contested exhibition game.

Manager Wally Berger's team made every hit count as Idaho Falls pitcher Glen Hyatt went the route and held the usually hard-hitting Cowboys to only three hits. The Russets were able to turn their eight hits into only three runs as Right Cowboy play helped the mound staff.

The Russets went into a 2-0 lead in the top of the fourth inning when they touched pitcher Dick Fiedler for two runs. Cirmelli gained life when Tony Chulla committed an error on a ground ball and was sent home promptly when Leachman homered for Idaho Falls.

Vilous Doubles

The Russet lead evaporated in the bottom of the fourth as the Cowboys collected their first hits of the game off Hyatt's offerings. Red Jessen opened the frame with a walk and came running home when dependable Lou Vilous connected for a double. Vilous came home minutes later as Weaver singled sharply to center.

The Russets went out in front again in the sixth when McNamara singled and came home on Cirmelli's triple. With no outs, Cirmelli died on third as Cowboy pitcher LaBrum zeroed two Russets and forced the third to pop out.

Game Iced

Twin Falls iced the tight game in the seventh. Rookie catcher Tom Self was safe on an error and was sacrificed to second by LaBrum. McCaffery walked and Campbell, a left-handed batter, crossed up the Idaho Falls defense by doubling down the third base line to score Self and McCaffery.

Tom McKelvey, who is destined to become the No. 1 catcher for the Cowboys before the season is over, opened the second and fifth innings with his accurate arm.

Leachman singled in the second, but was picked off first on a peg from McKelvey. Two more hits followed Leachman's and would have produced a run in the fifth. McKelvey picked another Idaho Falls runner off second base.

Luccheni Hurt Again

Frank Luccheni, regular center-fielder, who played his first exhibition game in a week, was in the lineup for only one full inning before he had to retire.

Luccheni had been sidelined with a sprained thumb and in the second inning, he caught a line drive on the same thumb. Business Manager Jack Radtke said the veteran player was "badly injured" and may be out of the lineup for some time.

Hyatt, who last five and didn't win a game for last year's Idaho Falls team, appeared in mid-season form against the Cowboys. He looked like he would be a steady winner for this year's Russet club.

Tight Pitching

Fiedler, who pitched the first four innings for Twin Falls, allowed four hits and two runs. He struck out three, while not walking a man. LaBrum was nicked for four hits in four frames and one run. He fanned two and did not walk a man. Geels worked the final frame for the Cowboys. He did not allow a hit or a run, but walked the only Idaho Falls player of the contest.

Manager Berger will send his Cowboys against the strong Lucky Lager semi-pro baseball team here Sunday in the final exhibition game of the spring season.

Following the contest the Cowboys will start preparing to leave spring training headquarters here for the return trip to Twin Falls on Monday. The team is scheduled to check into Twin Falls Tuesday and open the season Friday in a game in Boise. The first home contest of the season will be May 1, also against the Pilots.

Elmore Sports Group Seeks Deer Closure

GLENNS FERRY, April 22—A resolution recommending closing of deer hunting in that portion of Elmore county lying south of the south fork of the Boise river and west of Mountain Home was passed when 50 Glenns Ferry and Mountain Home sportsmen attended the Elmore County Wildlife club meeting here.

Difficulty in control and checking of hunters in this area were among reasons given for passing the recommendation. The resolution will be taken to the third district conference of the Idaho Wildlife federation Sunday in Boise by James Fasborg, delegate from the Elmore unit.

Deer Population Declines

Mountain Home sportsmen testified that the deer population on that range was low last winter as compared to other years when the area was closed. They emphasized that having a hunt there drives the game from their natural winter range.

Paul Brines, Mountain Home, will accompany Fasborg to the Boise session, where special hunts, new hunting areas, closing of others, regulations and trapping will be discussed and recommendations made to the state game commission.

For Open Season

The Elmore unit has been on record for a number of years as favoring an open deer hunt in Owyhee county and outlawing rifles with a caliber less than of the 30-30 for big game hunting.

Two colored films were shown by Dick Kelvey, one of the salmon run on Marsh creek in Stanley basin and the other of the state pheasant farm at Jerome.

"Fair Catch" Grid Rule Is Discarded

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 22 (AP)—Football's "fair catch" rule has been discarded.

The football rules committee failed to mention this change in the playing code after its January meeting at Pinehurst, N. C., but the surprise has leaked out to a few coaches around the country. Many others still are unaware of the change.

Now, the safety man, on a punt, has two options instead of three, as formerly. He may elect (1) to catch the punt, or (2) let it roll free.

Had Protection

Previously, if tacklers covering the kick were bearing down uncomfortably close he could raise a hand—the fair catch signal—and protect himself. In this case, the ball was put in play at the spot where he caught it.

The safety man's only protection now is that he cannot be hit by the opposition until the ball reaches him. Once the ball touches him, however, he is at the mercy of the opposing ends and tackles rushing downfield to cover the punt.

Wade Backs Move

Wallace Wade, Duke, a committee member who confirmed the rule changes, said the fair catch was eliminated because the committee felt it would have little effect on the game.

He suggested that it will encourage more punt returns, which happens to be one of the most colorful maneuvers in college football.

Bobby Neyland, Tennessee, disagrees. He thinks the change will discourage punt returns.

Red Sox Await Williams' Return

BOSTON, April 22 (AP)—Boston Red Sox General Manager Joe Cronin said he hopes the ailing Ted Williams will be able to rejoin the team in Philadelphia Sunday.

Williams, Sox batting king, is confined to his bed with a severe case of grippe and sore throat.

Williams was stricken Wednesday during a doubleheader with the New York Yankees and was running a temperature of 101 when ordered to bed.

Jose Ochea, 192-pound "Basque bull" from Boise, will headline the first local boxing card in recent months next Saturday night. Ochea is recognized as one of the finest heavyweights in the intermountain area. A four-bout card is being arranged by Promoter Milt Olsen.

O'Brien Returns To Boise Pilots

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—The Boise Pilots of the Pioneer baseball league have picked up some strength where they need it most for the 1950 season.

Jim O'Brien, who played first base for the Pilots last year, was optioned to Boise by Vancouver of the Western International league, club officials announced.

The Pilots had moved Ned Sheehan, a veteran outfielder, to the first sack, only infield spot missing an experienced player. O'Brien also can play in the outfield.

Baseball Tryout

A tryout for all baseball players to become members of the Twin Falls Junior Cowboys of the South Central Idaho semi-pro baseball league will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday at the softball diamond at Harmon park.

Ernie Marlow, team manager, urged local players to try for the squad. Uniforms are not required.

Only Chick Evans (1916) and Bobby Jones (1930) have won the U. S. amateur and open golf championships in the same year.

Buhl Indians Down Gooding 20-7 To Keep Lead in Class A League

The Buhl Indians, defending district champions, remained the only undefeated team in the district class A baseball league Friday by downing the Gooding Senators 20-7 in a contest played at Gooding. Twin Falls and Jerome are tied for second place behind the Indians with one defeat each.

Other baseball action in the valley was centered in the East Side class B league. The Heyburn Panthers tripped the Albion Blue Devils 9-7 at Heyburn and Declo nipped the Paul Panthers 16-15 at Declo. Declo and Heyburn are tied for the loop's lead.

Coach Floyd Luft used three Buhl pitchers in the contest with Gooding and the Indians' hurlers limited the Senators to three hits, but were touched for seven runs.

The Indians jumped to a 7-1 first inning lead, but saw Gooding score five runs in the third. Buhl then completed its rout by tallying five in the fourth and six in the remaining innings.

Gooding pitchers limited the Indians to seven hits, but 15 errors and eight walks kept Buhl running around the base paths.

Reynolds connected for a homerun for the Indians.

The Heyburn Panthers had to hold off a late Albion rally to defeat the Blue Devils 9-7. Albion outhit Heyburn 9-5.

Both teams scored two runs in the first inning, but the Panthers tallied four in the third and two in the fourth to take a commanding lead. Albion came back in the fifth for two runs and added three more in the sixth. It was the third straight win for Heyburn.

Durfee hit a double for Heyburn, while Tracy collected a two-bagger for Albion and Asher hit a triple.

Declo rallied for eight runs in the last half of the last inning to defeat Paul 16-15 in a game at Declo. The game was called at the end of the fifth inning by previous arrangement.

Paul scored seven runs in the top of the fifth. The lead looked good until the big bats of the Declo team found the range on Paul hurlers.

Manual Gutierez scored the winning run for the Hermits when Rex Quanstrom hit what should have been a homerun.

Both teams committed many errors.

The second match in the spring handicap rifle tournament was fired this week by members of the Twin Falls Rifle and Pistol club. Awards will be made to top shooters at the end of the six-week tournament.

Scores of the second match include Cliff Sharp, 259-823; K. Ballenger, 250-307; Dave Tieknor, 255-306; Ansel Cates, 244-493; Eva Ross, 251-509; Ken McBeth, 258-320; Frank Ashby, 251-510; Clyde Ross, 247-505; Jim Hays, 261-521, and D. O'Harrow, 245.

Shooters must participate in at least four of the six matches to be eligible for awards. Four of the matches will be on the club's indoor range and two on the outdoor range.

Forest Service Airs Game Hunts

BOISE, April 22 (AP)—Big game hunting dates were discussed today by state fish and game department officials and representatives of the U. S. forest service.

The forest service officials, headed by Fred Johnson, chief of wildlife management, came here from the regional office at Missoula, Mont.

Discussions will open Monday by the state fish and game commission on setting of big game and fur bearing seasons.

Pocatello Signs Second Baseman

POCATELLO, April 22 (AP)—Manager Larry Barton's big problem, lack of a second baseman, was settled when the Pioneer league Cardinals signed Billy Jack Rice, a former Fresno, Calif., second sacker.

Also inked by the Oats City squad was southpaw pitcher Walter "Lefty" Leyllan.

The two new additions brought the number of Redbirds to 17, according to Business Manager Don Dix.

River Sweeps Over Bank in Carey Region

day which promises additional melting and more run-off water. While the water reached its highest peak Saturday and receded slightly, officials report the flood condition can continue for weeks. Higher water levels are possible because there is still snow on the hills and low on the Pioneers.

Night patrols will be continued, officials said. Thirteen trucks, four bulldozers, two heavy shuttle loaders and the dragline which have been working the past few days will be used to reinforce channels and repair breaks.

Flood control crews directed by army engineers moved upstream northwest of Carey Friday to strengthen banks where the river enters the valley. Several washouts and damaged bridges were found Friday and quickly repaired, but the river stayed within its banks.

Debris Dam Near Carey Threatened Ranch

Debris washed down the swollen Little Wood river Saturday threatened to block the channel shown above. Before the jam was broken, backwater overflowed onto the Alfred Albrethsen ranch, but was stopped 150 feet short of the house by a bulldozer which cut a new channel back to the river. Water covering approximately 500 acres of land outside Carey had receded only slightly by Saturday night. The river reached a peak of 1,200 second feet at 2 a.m. Saturday. Students Help Fund Drive of Cancer Group

Twin Falls students participated in the American Cancer society educational and fund drive last week, contributing more than $129 to the drive.

Cancer drive activities in the junior high school were conducted by the student council with room representatives responsible for the work. Tag sales in the junior high school collected nearly $50 in the drive.

In the senior high school the drive was under the direction of the sophomore unit of the Girls' league with Sylvia Whittle as chairman and Jeanette Anderson as faculty supervisor. A member of the league in each classroom distributed cancer material. Fund collections in the senior high school totaled $44.

As part of the educational drive, a cancer film, "Traitor Within," was shown to students of the junior and senior high schools.

Elementary students were given educational literature on cancer by their home room teachers to be used in connection with regular health lessons.

Spring Cleanup Campaign in Twin Falls Entering Last Week

Mrs. Lorene Dean, above, rakes up dead grass and an accumulation of trash as her part in the spring cleanup campaign started last Monday. The campaign will end Friday. Mrs. Dean cleaned the alley area behind her home in the 400 block of Second avenue north. At upper right is an alley in the east part of town where homeowners have cleaned the alley and put trash in containers in preparation for city crews. In lower photo at right, B. E. Ford and H. T. Bunn load trash into a city truck in the alley between Fourth and Fifth avenues north. City crews will work steadily through Friday to haul away trash in the city's spring cleanup campaign. Also receiving diplomas will be 26 eighth grade graduates.

Principal speaker will be H. O. Gottenburg, Boise Junior college director of publications.

The Rev. John Sims will be speaker at baccalaureate services scheduled for the evening of May 14.

School will end officially on May 23, Kane said.

High school graduates will be Jim Pilcock, Warren Wheeler, Art Bally, Dick Smith, Jack Howe, Donna Hartley, Maxine Allen, Don Kendrick, June Turner, Bula Prior, Shirley Furnwall, Lorraine Mushlitz, Virginia Prior, George Nauman and Harold Miller. Miss Mushlitz is valedictorian and Miss Prior is salutatorian.

HOSPITALIZED

PAUL, April 22—Tom Andrew is receiving treatment at the LDS hospital in Salt Lake City where he was taken last week. Andrew has been ill since February.

PTA Executives Schedule Events

HAZELTON, April 22—The final meeting of the school year for the Parent-Teacher association executive board was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Nelle Dickey. Mrs. Henry Jones, Eden, vice president of the fourth district PTA, attended officially and discussed the hot lunch program with the group.

The exact date for the pre-school clinic will be announced later. It is expected to be shortly following the close of school in May.

The group went on record as asking the county commissioners to secure more time from the county nurse for the Hazelton schools. To date there has been but one visit during this school year; when the schedule called for one day a week devoted to the east end of the county at least.

Mrs. Sarice Human, president, has asked the chairman of each committee to have a written report ready for the PTA meeting Wednesday night. At this last meeting of the association for this school year, the new officers will be installed.

There will also be a puppet show staged by the fifth and sixth grades. The Y-Teens will have charge of the remainder of the program, with a special speaker scheduled.

Conclave at Buhl To Debate Labor

BUHL, April 22—A special meeting to consider the farm labor outlook for this vicinity will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the labor camp.

Officials of the farm labor sponsoring organization urge interested farmers to attend so definite arrangements can be made.

Correction

The Times-News Friday incorrectly reported Dale Vining appointed as new postmaster at Jerome. He was appointed as acting postmaster instead. Examinations will be held for the permanent appointment.

Work Is Speeded On 22 Residences

GOODING, April 22—Good weather is speeding work on 22 new homes begun by Max Boeciger.

The new residences are being erected on Colorado, Nevada and California streets between 12th and 13th avenues.

Completion is expected by Sept. 15. Estimated cost is $250,000.

PTA Officers For Ketchum Are Installed

KETCHUM, April 22—New officers for the Ketchum PTA were installed Wednesday night at the last general meeting of the school year, Mrs. Ralph Burr, outgoing president, conducted the meeting.

New officers are Mrs. Erwin McPheters, president; Mrs. Dee Nelson, vice president; Mrs. Grant Crutchley, secretary, and Mrs. Ed Smith, treasurer.

Appreciation Noted

Following installation ceremonies, Mrs. Burr expressed her appreciation to those who have helped her during the year. The group praised her for her leadership.

The program included a question period concerning things most appreciated in PTA and suggestions for assistance to the new officers.

Refreshments Served

The spring mood was reflected in refreshments including nosegays fashioned from gumdrops and paper doilies at each place. Strawberry shortcake was served. Hostesses were members of the hospitality committee.

The group voted to send Mrs. Burr to the workshop for two days and a continued stay for the convention where she was joined by the delegates, Mrs. McPheters, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Nelson.

Attend Sessions

Mrs. Frank Sanders, president of the eastern district of the Methodist church Women's Society of Christian Service, and Mrs. Charles M. Fisher, secretary of missionary education of the Idaho conference of WSCS, are attending the quadrennial session of Methodist women in Cleveland, O.

They are two of the five delegates from Idaho.

Approximately 3,500 women from all over the world are taking part in the assembly. Among speakers are Bishop G. Bromley Oxman, New York, and Miss Mildred McAfee Horton, president of the United Board for Christian colleges in China.

Baptists Elect Officer Panel; Plan Building

HAILEY, April 22—Church officers were elected and the annual church budget approved at the annual business meeting of the Hailey Community Baptist church Wednesday evening. The budget for the year amounts to $3,303.67.

New officers elected were E. O. Foster, Arthur Berry, Charles Read, Robert Miller, Arthur Reimers and John Wise, deacons, and Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Paul Eberle, Mrs. Rebe Buttram and Mrs. Fred Allen, deaconesses.

Trustees Named

New trustees are Glen Bradley, Harry Pfitzer, John Chatman, George Todd, Mrs. John Wise and Mrs. George Cutler. Arthur Berry will be moderator, Mrs. John Wise, clerk; Mrs. George Cutler, treasurer; Mrs. John Chatman, Sunday school superintendent, and Mrs. Robert H. Wright, music director.

The church has gained 25 new members this year, eight by baptism and 17 by transfer.

Building Program

An extensive church building program has been planned. The siding in the church and sanctuary will be repaired, a basement will be dug south of the church to house four Sunday school classes and a new furnace will be purchased. Also, the church parlor and kitchen will be enlarged and remodeled.

The Idaho State Baptist convention voted recently that the old Baptist church at Picabo be given to the Hailey church. The building will be torn down, lumber salvaged and used in the new building program here.

Sprinkler Project Okayed at Rupert

RUPERT, April 22—Discussion of improvement of Neptune park occupied the greatest part of the time at the city council meeting this week.

At the request of Mayor A. F. Beymer, L. L. Culbertson, chairman of the city recreation committee, presented figures on the estimated costs for installing sprinkling equipment.

Culbertson said he represented individuals and organizations willing to pay all expenses over $1,500 on installing a sprinkling system if that method could be used rather than flood irrigation.

Plans for the new system consists of underground pipes crossing the park in such a manner that the sprinkling of the entire five-acre park could be accomplished in six hours with a minimum of work. Total cost of the project is expected to be $1,750. The council voted unanimously to appropriate $1,500 for the sprinkling project.

Discussion of opening an alley to the Read addition, requested by a number of land owners at the last meeting, disclosed the fact that the area there proposed alley would be made had been sold in acreage units and it would result in cutting some of these tracts in half. The matter was dropped.

Communism Is a Religion

By DONALD B. BLACKSTONE (Pastor, First Presbyterian Church)

Rev. Blackstone

No one can understand communism unless he can see that communism is a religion. It is a religion that is by no means confined to the Russian people. The God which it worships is the power of the state. It has its doctrine, the chief of which is that "the end always justifies the means."

Its symbol is the hammer and the sickle. Its ritual is the parade of men and machines, achievements and treacheries, distortion and falsehood. The purpose of all of these is to express and glorify power.

Its goal is the conquest, preferably by deception, of the minds, bodies and souls of the people of earth, to the end that they may become the slaves of the state.

The method of communism is the destruction of all existing orders, economic, social, religious and political—so that it may offer itself as the savior of the victims of chaos.

Christianity also is a religion. It is the most logical alternative to communism. It is a religion that is not by any means confined to Americans.

The God whom it worships is the Creator of everything that is. He is Father-God who cares about all of the people of earth and sincerely seeks their welfare.

Christianity, too, has its doctrines. Chief among these is the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

Its symbol is the Cross. Its ritual is prayer and praise to God, self sacrifice and unselfish service.

Its goal is the conquest of the minds, bodies and souls of the people of earth that they may faithfully follow Christ.

Its method is to surpass its enemies in love and service.

There are at least five reasons why we are worried about communism.

1. We have seen it exploit, impoverish and destroy the people who have been unable to resist it.

2. We see that it is working among our people.

3. We feel that it endangers many of the benefits which Christianity has brought to our land.

4. We know that we are not strong enough to ignore it.

5. We see that the adherents of communism are willing to do far more to advance communism than the adherents of Christianity have thus far been willing to do to advance Christianity.

Who knows? Who knows? Nevertheless the answer is entirely with people like ourselves.

How shall we defeat communism?

1. Communism is a group of ideas. Ideas can never be driven out by force—they can only be crowded out by superior ideas. All history teaches the futility of persecution. The persecution of the adherents of a false religion is by far the most effective way of spreading that religion.

2. Christianity and communism are mutually antagonistic. In addition, it is the teachings of Christianity which are the foundation under the best in our American way of life. So, one of our surest ways of defeating communism is to teach and practice Christianity more effectively. Jesus long ago said, "Whoever is not with me is against me." This means that there never can be a neutral position. As the lines are drawn now, that means that each one of us is either for Christianity or for communism. Whoever is genuinely concerned about the spread of communism has no choice but to devote himself to the spread of Christianity.

3. It is not only that the home and the church need to take far more seriously their job of raising men and women who will have a strong Christian philosophy of life. The school had better get into this field also. Moral principals and spiritual convictions are the very core of American citizenship. The school is powerless to produce dynamic citizenship without them.

4. The churches cannot do the job that needs to be done unless a great many more of us join them, support and participate in their program, share honestly in their faith and their work.

Many a man and woman, confronted with the peril of communism, asks, "What can I do?" I hope that in these foregoing suggestions every honest inquirer will find a practical answer to that important question.

In Telephone Wage Negotiations

The Communications Workers of America union (CIO), which has as its members less than half of this Company's employees, is still threatening a telephone strike on April 26 unless the Company accedes to its demands. To date the union has not submitted any facts that warrant any increase in this Company's expense of furnishing telephone service.

Any further round of general wage increases or costly changes in working practices would mean rate increases in addition to those now needed.

Because you, the telephone user who pays for the cost of the service, have a big stake in these negotiations, we think you are entitled to know the FACTS.

DO THESE FACTS JUSTIFY A STRIKE?

Our Wage Policy

The Company believes telephone wages should be good, should compare favorably with wages paid by other employers in this area. Recent surveys of 2500 firms with about 185,000 employees show that our wages compare favorably with those paid for jobs requiring similar skills and experience, and that there has not been a general round of wage increases in the past year.

Nine General Increases in Ten Years

Telephone employees have fared well during inflation. They have had nine general increases since 1939 which have added $24,500,000 to our annual labor costs. Telephone rate increases have been less than half this amount.

Telephone Wages Up Much More Than Living Costs

The cost of living index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics has risen 68% since 1939 but the average wage of telephone employees represented by the union has increased over 100%—more than double.

TELEPHONE WAGES ARE GOOD

Here are some wage facts for telephone employees in this district whom union leaders are advising to strike:

Average Earnings	Per Week	Per Year
For Exchange Plant Craftsmen	$73.72	$3,848
For Switchboard Operators	$39.42	$2,058
For Service Assistants	$51.92	$2,710

Telephone employees are paid while learning and telephone employment is steady. On V-J Day there was a total of 11,370 employees in the Company—today there are 18,300. Due to this expansion of the force along with force turnover there are, of course, many employees below top rates. These employees receive regular progressive increases from the time they start until they reach the top of the schedule. These progression increases will average six cents per hour this year for these employees below top rates.

Here are some weekly rates on progression schedules:

SWITCHBOARD OPERATORS		TYPICAL PLANT CRAFTSMAN
After 1 year	$35.00	After 1 year	$46.00
After 4 years	42.00	After 4 years	64.00
Top Rate	45.00	Highest Top Rate	72.50

These rates are for a regular day-time 40-hour week. Extra compensation is paid for overtime work, and for evening, night, Sunday and holiday assignments.

Earnings for the present force—with much experience and little, in large towns and small—are on the average $14 per $8-hour day for exchange plant craftsmen and $9 per 8-hour day for operators and service assistants. These are good wages by ANY COMPARISON.

Favorable Working Conditions

Telephone employees have, at no cost to them:

- A Benefit and Pension Plan—one of the best in large industry.
- Vacations up to three weeks.
- Eight holidays without loss of pay.

In addition, telephone work is steady, permanent.

The Company Has Offered to Renew Present Favorable Contracts

In view of the fact that the cost of living index has dropped five points since the signing of the present contracts which provide for good wages and working conditions, the Company's offer to renew them is a good offer.

Less than one-half of the employees represented by the union voted for a strike.

In view of these facts the union leaders should withdraw their threat of a strike with its attendant inconvenience to the public and let telephone people devote their time and energies to serving the public.

Work Nears Completion on Well-Lighted, Modern Four-Room Addition to Washington School

The latest designs in school construction have been incorporated in construction of the new four-room addition to Washington school. Photo at top left shows the wide expanses of windows designed to make the best use of natural lighting. Manley Hendricks, plumber, installs plates in front of the unit convector heaters which will serve as boosters to the radiant heating system in the floor. In photo above, Hendricks picks up wash basin for installation in lavatory rooms located to left of photo. Counter will be work table for first-grade projects. In lower photo at left, glass block construction is shown in upper part of wall to provide more light. Three light fixtures above blackboard can be used as source for either direct or indirect lighting. (Staff photo-engraving)

Probate of Estate Asked by Petition

A petition for probate of will in the estate of Mrs. Charolette Kerlin was filed Friday in probate court by Mrs. Gertrude Holloway, Filer, a daughter.

Mrs. Holloway and her brother, Dwight P. Kerlin, Twin Falls, were named executors of their mother's will. Property includes a real estate contract worth $5,000 and a 60-acre farm valued at $24,000 in Twin Falls county. The court set May 10 at 10 a. m. as the time for hearing the petition.

Only other heir is another daughter, Mrs. Virginia D. Bowman, New York.

Will Vote Again

FAIRFIELD, April 22—Residents of Camas county will vote May 20 on the $130,000 school bond issue which was defeated in balloting held April 8. The same additions and alterations will be included in the new vote, which will be held between noon and 8 p. m. at the grade school.

OFFICER APPOINTED

BUHL, April 22—Clair Pond has been appointed as a policeman by James Hart, commissioner of police. He went on duty last night. Pond, 36, is married and has three children. He formerly was associated with the Pond Produce company and the statewide Plumbing and Heating company.

Research on radar, war-developed detection device, actually began as far back as 1922.

Work Nears Completion on Four-Room "Special" Addition for First Graders

First graders who start to Washington school next fall shouldn't have to be coaxed to leave their homes. They will enter the four new classrooms built by the school, and home was never like those rooms.

The four new rooms, built identically alike, were made with first graders in mind. The asphalt tile on the floor, green in color, is dotted with inlays of clowns' heads and animals and birds. Counters at the ends of the rooms are of first-grader height for work with modeling clay and other project materials.

The lavatories, two for each room and opening off the rooms, also are of miniature size. A large sink is located in the counters of each room so that clay and chalk-smeared hands can be washed before the smear is spread.

Comfort and light are the keynotes. One wall of each room is windows to allow sunlight to enter. Indirect lighting is arranged along the wall away from windows to provide light from that direction.

Heat is furnished by radiant coils underneath the floor and additional heat can be provided from unit convectors located under the windows if exceptionally cold weather strikes.

Parents will want to see the new classrooms. The building is far different from the schools of only a few years ago. The asphalt tile on the floor both looks and feels nicer than the oiled wood of older schoolhouses. There is no longer the request for permission to leave the room and then walk down a hall to a lavatory. There's no more studying in improper direct lighting on cloudy days, or wheezy radiators on cold days.

The children probably will take the new school building for granted, but most adults who see the rooms can't fail to be impressed.

Architectural work was done by Holmes & Lash. Reynolds and Walker were contractors for the project.

Oyster Supper Is Served at Rupert

RUPERT, April 22—Members of the American Legion entertained the auxiliary members at the annual oyster supper at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the Legion hall.

J. J. Van Every, toastmaster, introduced visiting dignitaries. Commander and Mrs. Irving McDonald, Adjutant and Mrs. Goss Gordon, all of Eden, and Vice Commander and Mrs. Austin Matheny, Hazelton.

McDonald spoke briefly on the Hoover commission and the activities of the American Legion within the district. The district commander discussed plans underway for the district convention to be held in Rupert in May.

Following the dinner the evening was spent dancing. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson, Malta.

Seed Service... A NORTHRUP KING BULLETIN

TIME TO SOW GRASS SEED!

Plant Golf Brand now for permanent lawn

It can be yours—a beautiful, velvety lawn throughout the season. And for years to come! Just plant Golf Brand seed now. Cool moist nights and warm spring days provide the ideal conditions for quick sprouting and lush, vigorous growth.

To give you a permanent lawn, Golf Brand contains nothing but perennial turfseeds—eleven different varieties in all. No short-lived fillers such as ryegrass.

The "blend of 11" includes grasses selected for fine texture, for rugged wear resistance; for thick spring turf, and for brilliant green color throughout the year.

Golf Brand is blended to produce a strongly-knit carpet of green anywhere—in shade or sun, on slope or level, on light or heavy soil.

Now that you can have that long-lasting, all-season lawn, start building it right away. The weather's right for Golf Brand!

For down-to-turf advice on lawn building and care, send for free copy of "Your Lawn": Write Northrup, King & Co., nearest address: Dept. 2, Berkeley, Los Angeles; Idaho, Boise; Ore., Portland, Albany; Wash., Seattle; Utah, Salt Lake City.

Hurry, and beat the weeds

Experts agree that the sooner you put grass seed in the ground in the spring, the better.

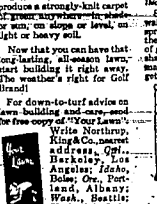

Lawn seed planted now gets the benefit of ideal conditions to hasten sprouting and growth and it still has time to become well established before hot weather.

Plant all-purpose Golf Brand anywhere

Golf Brand is truly all-purpose—you can sow it in sun or shade, on slope or level and expect excellent results. The secret is in the perfected blend of eleven different turf-grass varieties. Some are chosen for color and texture, others because they are sun lovers or are tolerant of shade or acid soil, others because of their sturdy root system or habit of propagation. As they grow, they achieve a balance that produces a fine lawn under any and all conditions.

Thick turf is answer to weed problem

Since most common weeds wait for hot weather before sprouting, you can discourage them by getting a good stand of grass going early. The grass shades the soil, cools the ground, making it harder for weeds to get a start.

Available in 1 and 5 lb. cartons or in 10, 25, 50 lb. bags.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO ABOVE AD

Golf Brand now treated with new Du Pont fungicide. Tests show treatment increased stands of grasses 46%. MAKES SEED GO FARTHER. Gives more uniform sprouting, turf gets thicker faster ... all at no increase in price to you.

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

By Times-News Correspondents and Staff Writers

"I like going to summer school. That is the only kind I have ever attended. It's fun in the summer, and besides, I always have such a good time visiting my grandmother, Mrs. Grace Nash, at Salem, Ore., every winter."

That's what Joy Rice had to say when starting the fifth grade at the HILL CITY school Tuesday. School has been held during the summer months there for quite some time.

Because of the deep snow and impassable roads, most of the farmers and their families leave in the late fall. Some go to Boise, some to California, some to Oregon, anywhere the climate is milder.

When spring returns to Camas prairie they come back to their farms. They say they're glad to have summer school for their children. It usually begins in April or as early as roads permit. The school is held in a large room, and the children are comfortable even in very warm weather.

This year Mrs. Margaret Wolfkiel came from Boise to teach three beginners, Sharon Tracy, Gloria Harrison and Patricia Dammen; Annette Thornton, Norma Rice and Billy Tracy, third graders; Norma Dammen, fourth grader, and Joy Rice, fifth grader.

Philosophers, scientists and flood victims all have their own ideas about the power of water. Before CAREY started having its flood troubles, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Eldredge found out how strongly immobilizing water can be in the form of snow, and mixed with dirt.

They spent most of the winter at home because of snow-blocked roads. Then they were plagued with mud. They live at the Little Wood river dam 14 miles from Carey. Reconciled to snowy conditions, they were put out when spring came and mud kept them in. Now it's the flood situation which has them worried.

It was last week that their car made its first trip into the yard from its winter stopping place. Previously, to get to the car, Eldredge had to walk three miles to a more traveled road near the Last Chance ranch.

He's watermaster for the Little Wood River Canal company and his duties demand he break hibernation when spring comes. Mrs. Eldredge teaches small children in church organizations. She says the thing she missed most was being with her pupils.

GOODING county residents may not know it—there has been no official action from the county commissioners—but there's a new deputy sheriff in Gooding county. He's a husky one, too, that James Russell Cecil, who weighed in at eight pounds, four ounces, some [illegible] days ago. Papa Rusty, the sheriff, admits his newest deputy may need some training some of these days.

* * *

And if young James Russell Cecil follows his daddy's footsteps, he'll have mysteries like this to unravel:

It was Thursday morning that Orval Chaney, TWIN FALLS public safety commissioner, parked his new blue car downtown next to a new gray car, same make and model, owned by a Friend who Orval won't identify. The same holds true for the Friend's Friend.

When Orval came back, his car was gone but Friend's was still there. Somewhat perplexed, Orval went to the police station. There he found Lee McCracken holding down the desk sergeancy, and Lee has handled not a few cases of missing cars in his years of police work.

Lee figured maybe Orval had just misplaced his car and asked if he had the keys. Orval produced 'em and the search was on. Orval hazarded a phone call to Friend to see if Friend had taken the car by mistake.

Friend hadn't. But Friend loaned Friend's Friend his car and told Friend's Friend to pick it up downtown. A call to Friend's Friend revealed he had borrowed the car as planned. Orval asked what color. Friend's Friend replied, "Blue."

Thus was Orval's car located. The explanation: Friend's Friend climbed in the car he thought he was to borrow, tried the keys and they worked. He figured if the keys fit, he was in the right car, and off he drove.

In the news column this week there was an item about the Lions club at WENDELL sending recognition to a new Lions club at Wendell, N. C. And it seems there are three other Wendells—Massachusetts, Minnesota and New Hampshire.

Here's the box score resulting from a session with Uncle Sammy's latest postal directories: There are 21 FAIRFIELDs in these United States, 16 EDENs, 15 ALBIONs, nine each for BELLEVUE, ELBA and OAKLEY and eight each for JEROME, RICHFIELD and HOLLISTER.

Useless information? Maybe so, but suppose some group or person in each Magic Valley town would send recognition to their counterparts in places by the same name elsewhere. It would give Magic Valley a nationwide reputation for friendliness and neighborliness.

Suppose a banker at BUHL, come Christmas or some time, would send some frozen rainbows from his city's trout farm to bankers in cities by the same name in Alabama and Minnesota. Suppose the TRIUMPH storekeeper sent samples of lead ore as paperweights for business executives in Triumph, La., and Triumph, Minn.

And couldn't the hobbyists and collectors have a wonderful time with exchanges! Matchbook covers from SHOSHONE might show up at Shoshones in California and Nevada. Maybe it would be a good idea to consult the postal directory for you again some of these days.

When Mrs. Erwin McPheters gives a party for her KETCHUM Girl Scout troop, the first grade rhythm band or her 7-year-old son, Michael, it's no ordinary party. But just like any children's party, the table is the main attraction.

When 32 of Michael's little friends showed up at his birthday party, they found an almost magical cake. Atop it was a western ranch cabin, a corral of pretzel sticks, tiny animals and poultry, miniature tools, a well, and groups of tiny cowboys which delighted Cowboy Michael and company.

On the arms of the U-shaped table were different centerpieces—for the boys, a large truck, and tools, and equipment 'n' everything, and for the girls a large mammy doll and complete sets of little living room and kitchen furniture and appliances. Cookies were in the shape of bunnies and chickens.

The afternoon's final surprise came when Michael's sister, Sondra, lifted the skirts of the mammy doll to find treats for each guest. Michael gave favors to the guests, too.

Assisting Mrs. McPheters were Mrs. Paul Barrett, first grade teacher, and her friend, Mrs. Dee Nelson. The cake came from Michael's aunt, Mrs. Ray Crowell, Boise.

Those who like to slide out of their skis and into a picnic basket will be caught short by Magic Valley's traditionally unpredictable spring weather if they had any notions of trying to pull that stunt today. Two weeks ago it was possible, but spring sprang at the Magic Mountain ski area early this year.

Claude Jones, who operates the ski facilities there, says there's still snow left near the upper picnicking area, above the third fork of Rock creek. But it's too wet and soft for any skiing. Non-skiing picnickers, however, will find dry ground below the third fork.

Claude described this year's skiing season as good but short—from the day after Christmas until a couple of Sundays ago. Usually there's skiing at Magic until now. Anyway, there's enough snow left for a rousing snowball fight in the warm sun, or maybe even enough for a super snowman.

Blood Donor Plan Is Parley Subject

Murtaugh Music Festival Is Held

MURTAUGH, April 22—The spring music festival was held at the high school Monday evening with DeLos Thorne, music teacher in charge. The program opened with selection by the band.

Vocal solos were given by Sheryl Lincoln, Joan Tolman, sopranos; LaVon Christensen, Jacquelyn Goodman, mezzo sopranos; LaRayne Demer, Annette Haycock, altos; Bruce Biel, Monte Lee, tenors and Beverly Poulton, Jerry Haynes, basses.

The girls in that group form a sextet which sang two trio selections. Members of the boys quartet are Lee, Biel, Haynes and Poulton.

Piano solos were played by Lucile Wold and Miss Tolman. The program concluded with selections by the mixed chorus. Accompanists were Ilene Egbert, Miss Tolman, Miss Goodman and Miss Demer.

The group will participate at the music festival at Burley Friday and Saturday.

Concessions Set For Legion Fete

WENDELL, April 22—Concessions for the American Legion "showdeo" scheduled here on May 12 and 13 have been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Weston and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frith.

About $1,800 in prize money is being made available for participants in the carnival's concessions, they announced. Proceeds of the "showdeo" will be used to send two delegates to Girls' state and two boys to Boys' state, to help the Legion junior baseball program and to start a Legion building fund.

4-H Club Meets

Meetings for the coming year were planned this week by the Magic Valley Maids 4-H club at the home of Joan Kleinkopf. Anna Lea Rackley called the meeting to order. Miss Kleinkopf played the accordion. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held May 1 at the home of Naomi Hines.

Father Dies

CASTLEFORD, April 22—Carl Carlson, father of Mrs. Stanley Fields, Castleford, and Mrs. Russell Fields, Wendell, died a week ago at St. Mary's, Kans. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fields and family, Mrs. Calvin Graybeal and son and Marie Fields, went to St. Mary's to attend funeral services. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fields and sons, Jack and Bob, went there previously.

Now, here is a CULTIVATOR that really knocks out weeds

Dearborn FARM EQUIPMENT

Some folks say a cultivator ought to "let air into the soil," "help retain moisture" etc. We say you cultivate to get rid of weeds. The other things are important, but knocking out weeds is number one. And we'll show you the cultivator that does it.

What's more, this cultivator can be attached to the Ford Tractor in about a minute! Now, that is a big advantage . . . especially when changing from cultivating to mowing and back again. Time surely is money now.

Study the pictures! See how easy cultivating is with Ford Hydraulic Touch Control. Let us demonstrate this cultivator for you. Rigid or spring shanks.

Ford TRACTOR

With Triple-Quick Attaching, cultivator goes on in about a minute.

Ford Hydraulic Touch Control makes it easy to lift the cultivator for turning.

Easily adjustable front axle steering guide permits accurate front steering.

Hydraulic Touch Control sets sweeps or shovels for uniform working depth.
